STRIKE UNCHANGED ON TRUNK SYSTEM

Strikers and Railroad Both Confident at End of First Day.

NO DISORDER HAS RESULTED

Company Succeeded in Keeping Passenger Trains in Operation—Tie-Up in Freight Along the Line—Conditions.

Montreal, Que., July 19.—The end of the first 24 hours of the strike of conductors, trainmen and yardmen on the Grand Trunk system finds both sides professing satisfaction with the outcome.

The company succeeded in keeping its through passenger trains moving. Such delays as have occurred were not unusual and a good many of the locals have made their trips without incident, manned by crews taken from the working forces in other departments. No attempt was made to move freight out of Montreal.

Vice President Fitzhugh, of the Grand Trunk, said tonight that when the mails and passenger trains are moving without friction the freight business will be taken up.

"This is not going to be a strike of a day or two," said Mr. Fitzhugh. "The company went into it knowing what it was facing and determined to see it through to the end. It cannot afford to lose."

Vice President Murdock, the trainmen's organizer, says that they never expected to tie up the passenger service and he points to the non-operation of freight trains and suburban trains as proof that the men have cause for satisfaction over the results of the first day of the strike.

So far the only attempt made at affecting a settlement has been the offer of the minister of labor to do anything possible to bring about peace by means of arbitration, which he suggests should be binding upon both parties. The offer for further arbitration was coldly received. "We are arbitrators now," declared strike leaders The railroad officials had no comment to make on the latest suggestion from Ottawa.

There has not been the slightest attempt at disorder in Montreal. The freight yards are quiet and only travelers are allowed to enter Buena Venture depot.

The repair shops were closed today and as a result three has been considerable grumbling among the men it being maintained that the company should not penalize the shop men because the trainmen went out.

Vice President Murdock announced tonight that 350 men had been added to the strikers by the calling out of the men employed on the Wabash, which has running rights over the Grand Trunk from Windsor to Niagara.

The calling out of these men has caused some discussion in Montreal because of the fact that two other railways, the Intercolonial and the Delaware and Hudson enter this city over the Grand Trunk tracks, the trains being manned by employes of these companies. The Intercolonial is the property of the Canadian government and has running rights on a rental basis over the Grand Trunk tracks between Montreal and St. Rosalie. It is practically in the same position as the Wabash and it is argued that if the Wabash men have been ordered out the Intercolonial men running into Montreal should be also taken off. This would of course bring the government into the fight and it is pointed out that the Brotherhood may not be anxious to do this. The only freight entering the city today over the Grand Trunk tracks with the exception of a short stock train from Brockville were these manned by Intercolonial men.

Strike Spreads to Michigan.

Detroit, Mich., July 19.—Tonight it was estimated that at least 18,000 employes of the Grand Trunk in Michigan have struck or out of work as the result of the strike inaugurated on that road yesterday. Approximately 800 miles of railroad are idle as far as freight traffic is concerned and the passenger traffic is said to be considerably delayed at several points.

The Michigan roads affected by the walkout are the Grand Trunk Western Railway, Detroit, Grand Haven and Milwaukee, Toledo, Saginaw and Muskegon, Cincinnati, Saginaw and Mackinaw and Pontiac, Oxford and Northern.

With the exception of a few minor disturbances reported from different points in the State, the first day of the Grand Trunk strike in Michigan passed unmarked by violence.

The first local outbreak occurred today when a brakeman on a Port Huron-Detroit train was struck in the face while standing in the train's vestibule. Two of his teeth were knocked out and his face cut badly. He reeled and fell through the opposite door of the vestibule and some one on the other track struck him and drove him back. Then the police drove the crowd back.

A STIR UP AMONG MARINE OFFICERS

Several Ordered Away From Washington to Prevent Further Strife.

COURT OF INQUIRY RESULT

Department Will Send Them to Different Ports of the World—Col. Haines Assumes Charge of Adjutant's Office.

Washington, July 19.—As a consequence of the report of a court of inquiry that unsatisfactory conditions existed in the Marine Corps, largely as the result of many officers having been in Washington too long, the headquarters staff with only a few exceptions, was today ordered to new ports in different parts of the world. Col. Charles H. Lauchheimer, headquarters adjutant and inspector, who requested the appointment of the court of inquiry, was ordered to the Philippines, and Lieut. Col. Henry C. Haines, his assistant, was directed to assume charge of the adjutant's office.

Col. Frank L. Denny, headquarters quartermaster, was ordered to San Francisco for duty. He will be succeeded by Lieut. Col. Charles L. McCawley, his second assistant, while his first assistant, Lieut. Col. Thomas C. Prince, was ordered to the Philippines.

Another officer who was censured, as a result of the inquiry, Col. Charles A. Doyen, was detached from duty at the marine barracks at Annapolis and ordered to the Bremerton navy yard in Washington.

Just what, if anything, has happened to Gen. Elliott, commandant of the corps, is a matter of uncertainty. The changes ordered today were the result of a letter from Acting Secretary Winthrop to Gen. Elliott. Mr. Winthrop directed Gen. Elliott to make the changes.

The concluding paragraph of this letter read: "You will inform Col. William P. Biddle, that being the senior line officer on duty in Washington he has been temporarily designated to act for the commandant in his absence until further notice."

Gen. Elliott was absent on his annual leave when the report of the court of inquiry was made. He returned to Washington to issue the orders and will leave immediately for East Gloucester, Mass. His arrangements call for his return to Washington on August 5th, when his friends say he will resume command of the corps notwithstanding the reports that he would be given leave until October, when he retires on account of age.

The election of Col. Biddle to act for the commandant is interpreted by some officers as meaning his selection as permanent successor to Gen. Elliott. He was recently ordered to Washington from the New York City barracks. He is out-ranked, however, by Col. Paul St. Clair Murphy, of the Philadelphia barracks.

As a result of the shifting of assignment, Maj. Benjamin H. Fullet, of the Annapolis barracks, will be sent to Charleston and Lieut. Col. F. J. Moses sent from Washington headquarters to Annapolis.

READY FOR TOBACCO.

Columbus County Markets—Rains Damage Crops—Convention.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., July 19.—The American Tobacco Company has written Mr. I. Hinson, proprietor of the Tobacco Growers' Warehouse, of Whiteville, that they will send a buyer here on the 26th, when the market will be formally opened. It is understood that all of the tobacco warehouses in this section will start up business on that day. A good deal of tobacco is being received, and prices will be in advance over last season.

Fair Bluff, in this county, is making a big effort to become the leading tobacco market in the Carolinas, and is pushing business for all it is worth. The outlook now is that its business will greatly surpass any preceding year. The crop is now being gathered and cured, and is most satisfactory. The grade is said to be better than in past years.

The continued rains we are having are very discouraging to farmers, and it is hard on cotton. While the crops are generally clean, many fields have been literally drowned out.

Information reached Whiteville today that large delegations from the rural districts in this county will attend the Wrightsville Beach convention on Thursday, to watch the result. The general impression is that there will be a deadlock, and exciting times. But the best of feeling prevails, and it matters not who the convention nominates, the ticket will receive the undivided support of the Democrats of Columbus county.

Talk of Transferring Baseball Franchise From Raleigh.

Raleigh, July 19—The statement has been made my Manager Kelley and others of the Raleigh team in the Eastern Carolina League that the Raleigh Franchise would be surrendered to the league at once, although the present Raleigh engagement with Fayetteville will be completed. It is said to be probable that Durham will take the team. Raleigh fans have failed to properly patronize the games.

SPEAKER CANNON ON INSURGENCY

SAYS WILL BEAR WATCHING

Insane Asylums Not Large Enough to Hold Some of the Brethren—Spoke From Court House Lawn.

Alma, Kas., July 19.—Speaker Joseph G. Cannon arrived here shortly before noon today and was escorted by an automobile parade to the court house lawn, where he delivered one of the speeches of his last day in the Kansas primary campaign. Mr. Cannon plunged directly into an attack on insurgency.

"Whenever," he said, "you hear a man talking about how, in Congress, he is going to kick out of the party traces; telling about how he is going to be a reformer and straighten out things; when you get a fellow that talks like that, you want to watch him.

"I believe in organization when I see people proclaiming their wisdom, and that they and God are a majority and that they won the work with anybody else; when I hear that kind of talk I sometimes think that the insane asylums are not large enough.

"I have high respect for a man who honestly differs with me on governmental policy. I am a Republican, dyed in the wool. I am a partisan and have been since I voted for Lincoln."

At this point Speaker Cannon discussed the prosperity of the country since '97, and then said:

"I some times wonder why men that kick out from their party organization and are wiser than anybody else, cannot learn something. There are lots of things that I don't get my way about in the Republican party, but I abide by the will of the majority. The man that kicks out of the traces like a balky mule ought to get out of the team.

"In framing the tariff bill seven Senators—Bristow, LaFollette, Clapp, Beveridge and company and 23 Representatives said: 'If you won't let us say how this tariff shall be framed we won't play in the game.'

"Now, who are the Czars?"

RECITAL AT WHITEVILLE.

Miss Sallie Pickett Oldham Entertains—Town Improvement Bonds.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., July 19.—Last night a delightful music recital was given in the auditorium of the Whiteville High School, by Miss Sallie Pickett Oldham, as reader, and Miss Ada Louise Shearin, as pianist. Miss Oldham is an accomplished and talented daughter of Wilmington, and is now in charge of the musical department of the Chadbourn High School. She has made many friends in our county, and is considered one of the brightest young ladies in the South. The programme was a lengthy and interesting one, and a large and cultured audience was in attendance.

Mayor Davis has received notice from the parties who bought the Whiteville street improvement bonds that they have completed an investigation, and find them legally issued and are now entirely satisfied as to their validity. As soon as the bonds can be signed and delivered the money for same will be paid. The town of Whiteville voted a $25,000 bond issue for street improvement purposes, but only $10,000 were issued at present. Mayor Davis says he will at once begin work improving our streets, and start the work of building up Greater Whiteville. The remainder of the bonds will be sold as the money is needed.

MURDOCK IS AFTER CANNON

"Not Only Stand-Patter, But Stand-Stiller."—Speaker Draws Fire of Kansas Insurgent—Deal With Tammany.

Emporia, Kas., July 19.—"Speaker Cannon is not only a stand-patter, but a stand-stiller," Congressman Victor Murdock, Kansas insurgent in the House of Representatives, said today. Following in the wake of Speaker Cannon, he defended the insurgent cause in his first political speech of the campaign and replied to the Speaker's charges made here yesterday. He charged Mr. Cannon with affiliations with Tammany Hall and asserted the greatest things the insurgents accomplished in the last session of Congress was to put the Speaker off the rules committee.

"Speaker Cannon for 30 years has been opposed to locomotion in any direction," declared Mr. Murdock. "For more than a quarter of a century he has stood out against progress. He is not only a stand-patter, but a stand-stiller. During his political life he has opposed about all the progressive legislation that has been offered and the wonder is that so much of it has managed to crop into the statute book.

"Now listen to me, I want to tell you something that Cannon did not mention in his speech yesterday. While posing as a partisan, as an ardent advocate of party fealty, he has played in the dark with Tammany. He did not hesitate to rejoice when his boon companion, Lorimer, of Illinois, was elected to the United States Senate by a coalition with the Democrats and by a deal that was rotten to the core; a deal that has made a stench in the nostrils of the Nation.

"Cannon has thoroughly poisoned the springs of representative government for 30 years. He has helped to block the way to light and freedom.

"Speaker Cannon was interested in just two things in the tariff bill—the protection of petroleum and its products and the tariff on women's gloves. When the insurgents offered an amendment reducing the tariff on petroleum, Cannon left his chair and raged over the floor of the House like a wild man. He said the House could not make the reduction. Then the insurgents became revolutionists. We appealed from the decision of the chair and we won our fight. A big hand came down out of the blue sky and smashed Cannon, the glove schedule, the petroleum schedule and all—and that hand was William H. Taft's."

PERU-ECUADOR

Brazil Reported to Have Withdrawn From Arbitration.

Washington, July 19.—Huntington Wilson, acting Secretary of State, when informed tonight of a report that Brazil had withdrawn its decision to join in arbitration of the Peru-Ecuador boundary grievances, declared he did not credit the rumor. The State Department has no information concerning such an attitude on the part of Brazil and I think that there is nothing in the report, said Mr. Wilson. It is extremely probable.

Manchester, Mass., July 190.—Neither the Brazilian embassy nor legation of the Argentine Republic, both of which are located here for the Summer, had received any word tonight confronting the cable from Rio Janiero saying that Brazil will decline to act as arbitrator of the Peruvian-Ecuador dispute.

FAIRBANKS ATTACKS CRITICS

Scored the Muck-Rakers for Their Unjust Criticism of President Taft and the Administration—Says Successful Men Advertise.

Omaha, July 19.—"Men who will wantonly and maliciously assail our public servants—no matter what their political faith may be, and who are faithful to public duty—are traitors to the State, no matter how lofty their hyprocritical professions may seem to sound." So said former Vice President Fairbanks, in the course of an address before the Advertising Clubs of America today.

"One of the marked features of recent years has been the indiscriminate abuse of men in public position. The malodorous muck-raker flourishes for a time, but he has come to be an object of contempt, since his recklessness and insincerity have become manifest. Abuse of the liberty of the press, the attempt to malign other men and by falsehood to destroy their character, whether in private or public life, had come to be recognized as the blackest among the entire catalogue of crimes.

"No public official, however high, should be immune from just criticism. But they should not be subjected to much of the abuse that is heaped upon them by the muck-rakers and sensationalists, who are actuated only by sordid mercenary motives or by some other equally ungenerous purpose far short of the public interest. There is perhaps nothing more reprehensible than the loose impeachment of the motives of the Chief Executive; the downright misrepresentation of his acts; distortion of his record by suppression of the truth or by pure falsehood. No possible good can result therefrom; on the contrary, in the end confidence in the government itself is undermined. It may be diverting to a certain class to witness such brutality towards the head of the nation, but upon sober reflection they must perceive the hurtful results which flow from it and which, in the final analysis, damage all alike.

"What has been said of the executive applies with like force to the indiscriminate reckless assault upon the Congress. Like the President, the lawmaking body should welcome honest criticism and fair debate, but wholesale abuse, unfounded utterance, respecting the integrity and patriotism of those who frame and administer the people's laws, beget distrust, want of confidence and doubt as to the beneficence of the government itself.

"If measures are devised in special interest turn the light upon them and their authors with unsparing severity. But we should differentiate with great care the good from the evil; uphold those who are devoted to the faithful and honest discharge of public duty, and smite without mercy those who betray their public trust. We should not, however, heap upon all indiscriminate abuse and thereby bring the government itself into contempt and disfavor; nor should we overemphasize the wrong and underemphasize the good and thereby give as erroneous impression of the true condition of American life.

"We shall find, in the final analysis, that executives, Congresses and Legislatures are composed of men who are neither better nor worse than the people are themselves. When we heap

CONFERENCE ON AERIAL RIGHTS

Elaborate Scheme of Proposed Regulations One of The Results.

UNLIKELY TO ACCEPT RULES

Great Nations of the Earth Have Too Many Things Not in Harmony. French and German Delegates in Conference.

Paris, July 19.—The European conference on aerial rights, which has been sitting in Paris, has drawn up a somewhat elaborate scheme of proposed regulations as the result of its labors. In the French and German delegates, M. Louis Renault and Herr Kriege, it has as its diplomats two most able and indefatigable draftsmen of international agreements, who had already worked together in the arrangement of the vast mass of the protocols of the last Hague conference and its decisions.

It is understood that the aerial conference will presently conclude its labors, but it is not clear how far the results will be of any definite character. Several great powers which are not bound together by any special political ties, appear to share the view that, so far as the subjects of the conference affect the strategical, that is to say the naval and military aspects of aeronautics, very great caution will be required in adopting any definite decisions at present.

It is evident that the interests and aims of different Powers and groups of Powers might show considerable divergence in regard to points of such vital importance, and it would be interesting to ascertain what has been their attitude at international conferences on matters affecting vital interests of the countries represented, a general agreement may not be practicable on proposed regulations as to which some of the Powers may be willing and ready to come to a decision.

In such cases there is either an adjournment of the conference, or all the parties give their assent to those results upon which they are agreed, while severally making reservations on those proposals which they are unable to accept.

There is reason to believe that one or other of these courses will have to be adopted on the present occasion, quite apart from the fact that some features of aeronautic rights and obligations are not yet ripe for international decisions of a binding character. The whole subject is one which has not yet received the attention which it urgently demands. Of course, on many minor points an agreement can easily be reached.

NO JURORS SUMMONED.

Columbus Superior Court Had to be Adjourned—No Convict Shot.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., July 19.—Court convened yesterday morning, but it was found that not a juror had been summoned, and the session was adjourned until next Monday, the 25th, when the regular calendar will be taken up. Judge Ferguson, of Waynesville, will preside in place of Judge Allen, with whom he has exchanged circuits. Judge Ferguson has before held court in Columbus county and made a most favorable impression on our people. This court is convened for civil business, the criminal court to be held in September. Our jail is well filled with prisoners awaiting trial.

An old negro man, Ishmael Pridgen, had his son arrested for an assault with deadly weapon, and the boy was landed in jail in default of $100 bond. The wife of Ishmael, who is a hard-working woman, says the old man had his son arrested because he would not stop his other work to help him with his crop.

Capt. W. E. Granger, superintendent of our road working force, was in Whiteville yesterday and says the report that he shot a convict is unfounded. He has his force now building an embankment across Gum Swamp, on the Conway road, and which has been a bad crossing. He will next start work to make a crossing over Beaverdam Swamp, near Lebanon church.

A HUNDRED INJURED.

Accident to Excursion Train at Dublin—Score Fatally Hurt.

Dublin, July 19.—Several cars of an excursion train on the Great Southern Railway broke away from the locomotive today and running wild down an incline crashed into a passenger train. Many persons jumped from the runaway cars and tumbled down the embankment. About one hundred persons were injured, most of them slightly. A score of the injured were brought here for medical treatment.

The accident occurred at Roscrea in the northwestern part of Tipperary county. It is thought that none received fatal injuries and the casualties would have been fewer had the excursionists clung to their seats instead of taking the chance of leaping before the collision occurred. The heavily loaded excursion cars gathered momentum rapidly on the down grade and the impact with the train ahead gave the occupants a tremendous shaking up.

TAFT SEES MAINE ON TEN DAY TRIP

President Completes Travels to Four Quarters of Country.

MAKES SPEECH AT EASTPORT

Eastport, Me., July 19.—Beginning his ten-day stay in Maine, President Taft reached the northeast corner of the United States today. It was the first time a chief magistrate of the Nation had visited this section of the State and for Mr. Taft it completed travels to the four quarters of the country. He has not been to Key West as President, but he said today that his tours of the United States always deeply impressed him with the homogenity of the people—their aims, ambitions and their ideas of true American citizenship being everywhere the same. President Taft and members of his party are sleeping tonight aboard the yacht Mayflower in the harbor. She will sail at 9 o'clock tomorrow for Bar Harbor, arriving there at 3 P. M. for a three days' stay.

The President spent an hour and a half ashore this afternoon and after an automobile trip to points of interest in Moose Island made a ten minutes' speech from in front of the Peavy Library. Everybody in Eastport was there to see and hear, and some had come into the city by trains and automobiles. Mr. Taft did not touch on politics. He did say, however, that he did not see just why Maine should have her elections two months earlier than most of the other States of the Union. The election here is to be held this year on September 12th and the Republican leaders who have a hard campaign on their hands are hopeful that Mr. Taft's presence in the State and his speech here and at Bangor and Rockland and possibly Bar Harbor may have a good moral effect.

In his talk the President expressed a new hope that closer commercial relations with Canada may be established during the next 12 months and the statement was greeted with resounding cheers. Many Canadians in the audience joined heartily in the demonstration. In order to reach Eastport the Mayflower had to thread her way through Canadian waters. She is anchored tonight just on the Maine side of the line.

The morning was damp and cloudy and thick, and the Mayflower lay well off shore until past noon when she started in.

Mayor Garnett escorted the President an his sight-seeing tour of the island. Mr. Taft expressed particular interest in the sardine industry which is centered here and he was presented with a case of specially prepared tins of the fish.

Mrs. Taft and several of her traveling companions visited the Canadian island of Campobello this afternoon. In his speech here the President, after stating that the proper way to understand the country is to go to the four corners and the places between, said:

"Now, I have been at Seattle, San Diego, to the southernmost point of Florida and now at Eastport, and I have found the same people, the same patriotic spirit, the same progressive civilization at each of these four points and also between them. When a man has had that privilege he may be said to understand the American Nation. It is true that they talk a little more through their noses in this part of the country than they do farther South, but the style of a woman's bonnet is just the same here as it is way down in San Diego.

"I hope that in this audience I am addressing, there are some Canadians. You are close enough to them to know them and to value them as neighbors. Canada is a great country and we are just learning how great a country it is. Speaking for the administration, we are convinced that a closer commercial relation with Canada will be well for both countries and if in the next year we can come to any agreement by which our commercial relations will be closer, we shall think ourselves fortunate. We have reached a time when neither ought to be envious of the other, but each ought to be convinced that the more prosperous the one the more likely the other is to be prosperous, and that the growth of the trade of one means the growth of the trade of the other. It is pleasant to see that all the controversies between Great Britain and the United States, which in the past have been many, have been settled, or in course of settlement, by arbitration. This is the first time in the history of the two countries when that could be said."

Rocky Mount, N. C., July 19.—Both games of the doubleheader were annexed by the Sailors today by the close score of 2 to 1. Considering inclement weather, the stands were well filled. In the first game a hit with a man on, gave the Sailors a run after two were down. The hitter scored the winning run a few seconds later on a passed ball.

In the second game, inability to hit safe off Hanks while the Navigators dropped them safe in a pinch on McCathran caused the crew to lose by the same score as the first game. Seven innings made the game by agreement. There was no fielding of note and runs were earned.

FINGER MARKS LED TO ARREST.

Man Wanted in Belgium for Big Robbery Detained in New York.

New York, July 19.—Finger marks found on a rifled safe in Liege, Belgium, last January and duplicated on a little photograph print sent from Liege to the central office here and finger marks freshly imprinted on a proof pulled by central office detectives today led to the detention this afternoon of a young man giving the name of Louis Mendalbaum. He is charged with robbery.

On the morning of January 7th, last the Francois brothers and Emile Marck found that the vault of their bank in Liege had been opened by an electric driven drill and robbed of 400,000 francs, $80,000 in jewelry, bonds and cash. A private safe in the banker's house adjoining, also had been forced and on its door were found finger prints in oil. The Belgian police thought they recognized the workmanship and sent to the police here a description and photographs of the finger prints of Mandelbaum tally with those sent from Belgium. Mendelbaum is 25 years old and protests that he does not know why he was arrested.

The bonds were recovered some time ago in London, but not the cash or the jewels.

TEXAS SOLONS GATHER.

Special Session to Consider Fire Rating Board Law.

Austin, Texas, July 19.—The third called session of the 31st Texas Legislature was convened this afternoon for the specific purpose of considering the advisability of repealing the fire rating board law enacted at the session of the Legislature. Protests have been made to the government that the operation of the law has proven detrimental to the business interests of the State and it was in answer to those protests that the special legislative session was called.

In his message Governor Campbell urged the repeal of the law and the adoption of one in its stead which would prevent the alleged discriminations charged as having been made possible under the present statute.

The passage of a law prohibiting the presentation of the pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight at Reno is recommended.

ESTRADA FACES CRISIS.

Norwegian Ships With Supplies Cannot Reach His Forces.

New Orleans, July 19.—Much concern has been caused the local sympathizers and followers of the Estrada faction in Nicaragua by the recent order of the Norwegian government practically forbidding Norwegian crafts to enter the harbor of Bluefields. As all of the steamers which have been carrying supplies and munitions of war to Bluefields are of Norwegian register this order may have the effect of cutting off the Estrada stronghold from the outside world.

At present there are three Norwegian ships tied up at New Orleans on this account. They are Hiram, the Imperator and Distator. The only other available steamers for Bluefields are the Utstein and the Marietta Di Giorgio and these also fly the Norwegian flag. The Marietta is now at Bluefields and the Utstein is on the way there having left before the order was promulgated.

This order from the Norwegian government is declared by the Estrada sympathizers to be a coup etat of the Madriz faction. If it were made ironbound, Bluefields, without supplies, would have to capitulate, and thus end the revolution. The Estrada people, however, hope to secure some ships of British register and put them in the Bluefields trade.

That the improvised gunboat Venus has attempted no interference with any merchant vessel either coming into or going out of Bluefields is the statement made by Capt. Harelden, of the Dictator, which arrived in New Orleans from Bluefields late this afternoon.

No Influence.

During a municipal election in a town in the west of Scotland a young lady who was canvessing in behalf of one of the candidates called at a house, the door of which was opened by the good wife.

"I have called to solicit your vote on behalf of Mr. ——," said the young lady.

"But it's not me that's got the vote. It's ma man," replied the woman.

"Yes," said the young lady, "but I thought you might perhaps use your influence with him."

"Me influoence him?" said the good wife. "I hiv nae influoence wi' him. Only this morning I askit him to wash the floor afore he went out, and he wadna dae it."

The Good Listener.

The art of conversation has been defined somewhere as the art of listening. I prefer to call it the art of give and take. The good listener is often responsible for one of the gravest conversational sins. He or she encourages the bore and the egotist, in which case the pleasure is surely altogether one sided and selfish.—"Frances" in London T. P.'s Weekly.

Score One to Nothing Against Wilson Yesterday Afternoon—Pretty Running Catch by Sharpe—Runner Forced In—Score.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Wilson, N. C., July 19.—The Giants again shut out the Champions. Gunderson was in the box for the visitors and Stewart for the home team. The only run made was by the visitors, and here is how it happened. The game was won in the first inning on two errors, a stolen base and two players being hit by pitched balls, which walked in Handiboe, scoring without a hit being made. Barring this presentation of the game, it was a beauty and was hard fought to the finish. Sharpe's running catch was the main feature.

MRS. YOUNG WAS VICTIM.

Shot by Rigdon in Chicago Before He Ended Own Life.

Chicago, July 18.—The identity of the woman shot last Friday afternoon by Charles Rigdon, just before he met death from a bullet wound, said to be self inflicted, was learned positively today to be Mrs. Emma Young, now residing in Evanston, and step-daughter of an attache of the Norwegian embassy at Washington. The young woman known as Mary Wilson, who was with Mrs. Young at the time of the shooting is Miss Theresa Trojman, step-sister of the wounded woman, and who until three weeks ago was an inmate of a Catholic convent near Washington, D. C.

The name of John C. Fetzer, millionaire real estate man of this city, was drawn more closely into the tragedy by a statement of Mrs. Young, who declared Rigdon had visited the real estate office two days before the shooting, drawn a revolver and threatened to kill Fetzer.

A complete confession of her identity and of circumstances leading up to the shooting was made today by Mrs. Young, who still is dangerously ill at a hospital here.

She declared she had been in the employ of Rigdon as a stock salesman for the last six years. During this time she made several trips with him, visiting numerous cities of the country. Her relationship with Rigdon recently had been severed, she declared, because of his habits of drinking.

Rigdon is charged by Inspector Lavin with having visited Mr. Fetzer's office with the purpose of killing the real estate dealer and the woman and asserts that Fetzer was the real cause of the shooting.

Rigdon learned that Mrs. Young had written letters to Fetzer and Inspector Lavin declares that Rigdon demanded that Fetzer produce these letters and explain them to him. The letter addressed to Fetzer and found in Rigdon's pocket after his death is said to have been taken by Rigdon from a bunch of unopened letters on the desk of the real estate man before the latter's arrival at the office the day it was delivered.

Melba and the Old Woman.

Mme. Melba once said that the most pathetic incident in her career occurred when she was singing at Philadelphia. "When I left the academy," she says, "my arms were full of roses. A white haired woman stepped forward and said: 'God bless your beautiful heart. I have been waiting in the snow for you to come out. Your voice is the most beautiful thing in the world. Will you give me a rose to keep in memory of it?' There she stood, white haired, in the driving snow, poorly clad in black and with lines of grief and age scarred on her face, waiting to tell me that I had made her happy. I gave her every flower I had. I kissed her on both cheeks, and we cried together."

Only Chance They Had to Steal.

At least once a year the Prince of Solo gives a great entertainment, when he dispenses a truly royal hospitality. Hundreds of natives and Europeans are invited to the festival, and the best actors and dancers are engaged. After one of these entertainments it is said all sorts of tableware and bric-a-brac are offered for sale in the city—a result of the wholesale thefts on the part of the servants, who seldom receive any pay and take this means to "get even." It is said that some one remonstrated with the prince for permitting this condition of affairs to exist, and he is said to have answered, "From whom can my people steal if not from me?"—National Geographic Magazine.

SOLDIERS AT GETTYSBURG

Maneuvers Begin Today—5,000 Regulars In Camp.

Gettysburg, Pa., July 19.—Three National Guardsmen from West Virginia and the District of Columbia arrived in the United States Camp of Instruction here today and took the places of the Pennsylvania and New Jersey troops, who were here for the second of the encampment.

The District of Columbia tonight has the following troops under canvas on the Gettysburg field: First and Second regiments and first separate battalion infantry, first battery field artillery signal corps and hospital companies. West Virginia sent the first and second infantry with medical corps.

Upon the arrival of the various companies immediately the detraining was started and the militia displayed the promptness along this line which has been one of the features of the present encampment. Tonight the field was again covered with a broad expanse of canvas marking where over 5,000 regulars and militia are encamped. The maneuvres will begin tomorrow.

Utica, N. Y., July 19.—J. Howard Lowery, the young bank teller, who was arrested in Philadelphia yesterday on the charge of embezzling $115,000 from the Utica City National Bank, was brought here today and arraigned before United States Commissioner Senior. He was held in default of $10,000 bail for the Federal grand jury.

SUSPICIOUS DEATH.

Coroner's Jury Investigating in Cedar Creek, Near Fayetteville.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fayetteville, N. C., July 19.—Because of suspicious circumstances surrounding the death of B. A. Jackson, a farmer of Cedar Creek township, reported to Coroner McGoughan since the event July 10th, a coroner's inquest was held here today in order to ascertain the nature of Jackson's death. Evidence was produced that Jackson seven months ago married a widow Parker, whose children strenuously objected to the marriage; that one son, Roper Parker, who recently escaped from the county chain gang, made threats against his step-father, who died suddenly without apparent cause last Sunday during the presence at home of another step-son, who left immediately thereafter. The hearing was then adjourned until Jackson's wife can be produced as a witness. The suspicions of Jackson's brother were aroused by the peculiar appearance of the corpse.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE WORK

(Special tSar Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 19.—With the starting of the central party at Carthage and the western party at Hendersonville today, all five of the Farmers' Institute parties to go into every section of North Carolina during the Summer and Fall are in the field with reports from all of them of unprecedented attendance and interest.

All phases of farming and farm interests are being demonstrated and exploited by some of the best informed agriculturists in the State.

J. P. Cook, chairman of the board of directors of the Stonewall Jackson Training School, Concord (State reformatory), is in the city and is enthusiastic over the latest good fortune that has befallen this institution through the action of the decision of the State Press Association to put the Bill Nye memorial in the form of a special building for this school. Just what amount is to be invested in this memorial structure has not been decided. There are plans already perfected for a $20,000 administration building and there is some talk of taking this as the memorial. There are now sixty-odd boys in the school and the most satisfactory progress is being made. The Press Association committee for the Nye memorial comprises R. W. Vincent, J. H. Caine, R. M. Phillips, John Julian and A. H. Boyden, the latter an honorary member.

After considering the matter for more than a week the board of aldermen have voted to grant the Carolina Light and Power Co., which controls the electric light, power and street railway business here, an increase of $4.25 per lamp per year for the street lights throughout the city, in order that the company may install an improved Magneto light in the place of the rather antiquated and lower power lights now in use. This increase will make the lights cost the city $60 each.

The first commissions issued to North Carolina National Gaurdsmen under the new regulation that provides for the examination of men elected to offices in companies by board of examiners established at conventent points in the State, are just issued to D. E. Penland, first, and H. E. Johnson, as second lieutenant, Company K, Asheville. Two guardsmen elected to these positions some weeks ago were examined and failed to pass. A number of other commissions have just been issued by the adjutant general. F. M. Carlish, second lieutenant, Company A Second Infantry, Tarboro: Armistead K. Tayloe, first lieutenant and assistant surgeon, Washington, N. C.; W. H. Allen, aide on the staff of Commander T. C. Daniels, Naval Reserves, Newbern; W. R. Hampton, lieutenant Fourth Division Naval Reserves, Plymouth; also J. S. Morman, lieutenant junior grade, Plymouth division.

That the crop conditions in Wake, Nash, Franklin, and Edgecombe counties are very much impaired by the continued rains is the report made by Mr. Ben Moore, an observant traveling man who has just completed a business trip through large sections of each of these counties. He thinks that the yields of cotton, corn and tobacco especially, are especially deteriorating under the present adverse conditions.

NEGRO CONVICT SHOT.

Fired Upon and Perhaps Fatally Wounded In Nash County.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., July 19.—A young negro, Ben Coley, was stopped in his effort to escape from the Rocky Mount road force at an early hour this morning when he was fired upon with a shot gun loaded with buck shot by guard J. H. Stone. The shooting occurred near the camp which is located in Edgecombe county, about two miles east of the city. Seven shots struck the negro, one of them taking effect in the left leg and breaking it, while the other six went into the lower part of his back. The negro was brought to this city and promptly given medical attention.

The negro was shot at a distance of about 75 yards, shortly after he jumped and ran from the cart he was driving. The guard followed in close pursuit and when the man appeared in view again the guard fired with the result that the one shot stopped the man. The negro is an old offender and has seen service with the road forces over this section of the State on several occasions in the past.

ROMANTIC MARRIAGE.

(Fayetteville Observer 17th.)

There dashed into Fayetteville yesterday morning an automobile containing Messrs. W. B. Williamson, L. L. Sandy, J. P. Watts and Miss Bettie Johnson, all of Parkton, coming posthaste here, fearing pursuit, for the purpose of having Mr. Watts and Miss Johnson united in marriage before objecting parents could interfere. They lost no time in securing the services of 'Squire D. N. McLean, who quickly married them, the ceremony taking place in the boarding house over the Machinery Exchange on Upper Hay street.

Mr. Watts, whose native place is Burke county, this State, is a young man of prepossessing appearance, though totally blind, while his bride is a vivacious, pretty girl, just 18 years of age.

Those Pies of Boyhood.

How delicious were the pies of boyhood. No pies now ever taste so good, what's changed? The pies? No. It's you. You've lost the strong, healthy stomach, the vigorous liver, the active kidneys, the regular bowels of boyhood. Your digestion is poor and you blame the food. What's needed? A complete toning up by Electric Bitters of all organs of digestion—Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bowels—Try them. They'll restore your boyhood appetite and appreciation of food and fairly saturate your body with new health, strength and vigor. 50c at Robert R. Bellamy's.

OFFICER KILLED BY DESPERADO.

Murder by Negro in Anson County May Result in Lynching.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Wadesboro, N. C., July 18.—Telephonic advices from McFarlan, fifteen miles houth, tell of the shooting of Constable J. M. Sing by Claude Thomas, a negro employed on construction force on the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad.

Mr. Sing arrested another negro for shooting on the streets and as he started with his prisoner for the jail Thomas came from the shanty with a pistol and fired five shots. Taree of the bullets struck Mr. Sing, two going through the abdomen and another the thigh.

He is not expected to live through the night. Thomas made his escape, but is being followed by a posse with bloodhounds, and they hope to capture him.

The community is greatly excited, and it may go hard with the negro if he is caught.

NEWBERN BI-CENTENNIAL.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., July 19.—Final preparations are now being made for the Newbern Bi-Centennial celebration and State Firemen's Tournament. A number of expert decorators have been busily engaged this week in dressing the city in its gala attire, and the scene is now a riot of color that has never been equalled in this State. Thousands of colored electric lights cast their rays from the arches that have been erected and hundreds of yards of banners and bunting wave in the breeze. The visitors will begin to arrive Saturday and everything is in readiness for their entertainment.

ROOSEVELT'S POSITION.

Discards All Candidates in Ohio Race —Has Many Guests.

New York, July 19.—Theodore Roosevelt hopes the Republicans in Ohio will accept a Republican progressive platform but taking an attitude in line with that of President Taft, he declines to exert influence for any candidate in the anti-convention situation. He made this plain in New York today after a conference with Reynolds Kinkaid, of Toledo, who is regarded as the second choice of those Ohio Republicans who are supporting James R. Garfield, ex-Secretary of the Interior for the gubernatorial nomination. It is understood that Mr. Garfield had a hand in Judge Kinkaid's visit today and that Garfield's supporters have agreed to throw their strength to the judge if Mr. Garfield is not nominated. Neither Col. Roosevelt nor Judge Kinkaid would discuss their conference. Col. Roosevelt virtually admitted, however, that his approval of the candidacy of Judge Kinkaid for the Republican nomination for Governor of Ohio had been sought, when he said: "I cannot support any candidate for a nomination. I can only say that I hope the progressive platform will be adopted in Ohio."

The ex-President took luncheon with G. A. Wilson, assistant president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, and Albert Fox, general secretary of the Associated Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen of England. They talked over the labor conditions in this country and Europe.

Booker T. Washington called on Col. Roosevelt today to ask him to speak before the National Negro Business Men's League, which is to hold a convention in this city on August 17th, 18th and 19th. Booker Washington is president of the league. Mr. Roosevelt promised to make an address on August 19th. On the following day Dr. Washington is to sail for Europe to collect material for a series of articles for a magazine on the condition of the laboring classes in Europe as compared with that of the negroes in America. Col. Roosevelt left late this afternoon for Oyster Bay.

CLEARING UP DIFFERENCES.

Little Danger of Strike Now on Pennsylvania System.

Pittsburg, July 19.—"We are moving along nicely," said Z. B. Bradrick, secretary of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen as he and nearly 50 other men, representing employes of the Pennsylvania Railroad lines west of Pittsburg left General Manager G. L. Peck's office this evening after a conference on the wage question.

"We are to have two more meetings tomorow," Mr. Bradrick added, "and it is possible that we shall need two weeks to clear up all matters. Even then we might strike a snag at the end, but so far things are moving along nicely."

Crops Being Damaged—News and Personal Items.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mount Olive, N. C., July 19.—The almost incessant rains in this section during the last two weeks have somewhat damaged the crops, and some of the farmers are becoming rather anxious about their prospects. The weather conditions have already assumed the seriousness of a "wet spell," and if this continues there will be great damage to most crops around here.

SQUEALER BROUGHT BACK.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Asheville, N. C., July 18.—Canie Allison, upon whose statement warrants were sworn out for half a dozen men charging them with retailing, tried to make a get away today, but was captured this evening at Craggy and brought back to the city. He will be compelled to testify in substantiation of his oath made when he swore out the warrants or suffer contempt proceedings. It is said that some of the friends of the convicted ones attempted to get Allison to leave to prevent prosecution.

Feet Tired—So Tired?

TIZ Makes Sick Feet Well No Matter What Ails Them.

It's the sure remedy, you know, for everything that gets the matter with your feet. It's for sore feet and for sweaty, bad-smelling feet, and for corns, callouses and bunions, too.

"For years I have been troubled with sore and tender feet; suffered intense pains. Have had the assistance of physicians without relief. I bought a box of TIZ, which worked a perfect cure, as it has with a great many of my friends. I would not be without it. All it requires is to be known to be universally used." A. F. Dreutzer, Chicago.

TIZ is not a powder. Powders and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous exudations which bring on soreness of the feet, and is the only remedy that does. TIZ cleans out every pore and glorifies the feet—your feet.

You'll never limp again or draw up your face in pain, and you'll forget about your corns, bunions and callouses. You'll feel like a new person.

TIZ is for sale at all druggists, 25 cents per box, or it will be sent you direct, if you wish, from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill.

A city's chief asset is health. It is as important to be conserved in Winter as well as in Summer. All the time is the best time to clean up a city.

Perhaps the sophisticated Republican party will have an altogether plausible and specious explanation why the balance of trade has slipped away from us under Republican prosperity.

The Jacksonville Times-Union has taken to bragging about its circulation. No use to do that. The paper that comes from the T-U printery is evidence that a man who can read and has the subscription price would want that paper.

By the way, Col. Roosevelt has not told the Taft administration how to handle Nicaragua. When a man catches a bear by the haunches he welcomes advice from the man who can tell him how to let go and get out of the game.

American people have become frenzied over the idea of getting rich without working and splurging around with nothing to do but clip coupons or call at the bank and get their money easy on speculative deals, shrewd business schemes and smart-alex tricks.

The Lumberton Robesonian commends the recent action of the Robeson county grand jury for its official action in behalf of public schools and good roads. It is a healthy sign when North Carolina grand juries take a leading part in the progressiveness of the age. The grand juries can do more than report true bills when they take a notion to do it.

The progress of North Carolina under Democratic rule, and the wise and safe administration of the State's affairs, embracing the earnest extension of education, the practical development of agriculture, and the moral welfare and happiness of the people, is all the reason a sane man wants to make him keep that party in power. Horrid experiments are not to be thought of.

Our old friend Walter Wellman, who so humorously entertained us by his proposed balloon expedition to the North Pole, is now bobbing up with a proposition to try a flight across the Atlantic ocean in the dirrigible balloon in which he was to beat Peary and Cook to the Arctic. Walter is not content for Colonels Roosevelt, Jeffries and Johnsing to do all the three ring acts but he is hankering after some portion of the limelight that will keep us from forgetting him. He should know that we are unforgetting ever. Therefore, he should not do anything that might cause him to be lost some ten or fifteen miles off shore.

Republican "rags" are making much ado over the announcement that President Taft has shown that he is for "conservation" by having "in a single day recently withdrawn nearly 9,000,000 acres of public land." It should be explained that these lands belonging to the Republic were lying around loose, subject to seizure or exploitation by corporate or private interests, and that "withdrawn" means that they practically were snatched out of reach of the public land thieves. They could have been withdrawn in "a single day" years ago, along with millions of other public lands which Republican administrations allowed to be gobbled up by predatory syndicates and piratic adventurers. The "snatching" was "done quick" all right, but it took a dickens of a long time to see the necessity of doing the snatching. Republicans beat the earth for taking credit for tardy seizure of opportunities long neglected.

MAYOR SEIDEL, SOCIALIST.

The note of alarm recently raised in a speech by President Taft who pointed to the Republican party as the only political force to prevent the growth of socialism in the United States has emphasized the fact all over the country that it is under Republican National administrations and in Republican States that socialism has so increased in the United States as to attract serious National attention. However, there is no alarm in the Democratic South over any socialistic movement and it is only from the Republican North where its growth has been such as to even cause the President to become apprehensive and to use it as one more straw for the drowning Republican party to lay hold of in the desperation of that party's apparently sinking condition.

The President's socialistic bugaboo has served to accentuate the blame that attaches to the Republican party for the growth of socialism. There have been no Democratic National administrations under which it could spring up as a protest, and it is a striking coincidence that socialism is an altogether negligible quantity in Democratic States. The direct and circumstantial evidence, therefore, fixes upon the Republican party the culpability for kindling the fire under the cauldron that is brewing socialism. There is consequently only one conclusion at which to arrive, and that is that the real menace so far as the rights of the people are concerned, so far as the provocation of socialism is regarded, and so far as safe government is involved, is the convicted Republican party. We do not see how any reasonable man can fail to recognize that fact, with the acts and the record of the Republican party before him.

As an afterclap of Rooseveltism and as a concurrent event with Taftism, it remained for the Taft Administration to be distinguished by the first notable socialistic upheaval in the United States, which is to say the election of a socialist Mayor and his ticket in the city of Milwaukee, Wis. That Western city, in a rock-ribbed Republican State, was the first of the large cities where socialism has triumphed, a self-evident proposition that in that very considerable city socialism was sufficiently strong to down Republicanism. From all accounts, too, it appears that socialism is an improvement over Republicanism. For instance, the press is noting the fact that Emil Seidel, the socialist mayor of Milwaukee, is proving to be a most disagreeable disappointment alike to Republicans and Democrats, who are praising him, although a short while ago dire things were prephesied about the results of Seidel's election.

Since Mayor Seidel has been in office he is getting credit for doing many sensible things, and contrary to all expectations he seriously regards his oath of office and manifests at all times and on all occasions great respect from the laws of the country and for the ordinances of Milwaukee. As Seidel is a German as well as a socialist, it was anticipated that he would be extremely liberal or lax in the interpretation and execution of the laws, but under his brief administration there has been a considerable reduction of saloons of the "dive" class, a wholesome reform having been brought about by the refusal of license to places which heretofore have with impunity violated the laws and the excise regulations. One hundred "dives" have been forced to close doors, and the socialist mayor is also enforcing the liquor laws in the "restricted districts," an accomplishment that was considered an impossibility by former Republican mayors. He also promptly prohibited the exhibition of the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures, and made it distinctly understood that they would not be tolerated in Milwaukee.

In many other ways the socialist mayor has improved conditions in Milwaukee and yet it is said that he does not resort to strenuous or harsh methods. He declared recently that he "does not like to issue orders," but prefers to "ask for co-operation" on the part of the people. He says he believes that generally will accomplish the desired results.

In the United States socialism is the dream of the optimist who believes that people want to do right and as a whole and in communities can be trusted for a square deal for the good of all. Here as well as in Europe it is a protest against organized greed, discontent under favoritism for the classes as against the masses, and opposition to autocratic government such as they have in Europe and government for special interests such as that represented by President Taft's party. If the President really has a wholesome fear of socialism he should take fright at his party as the inspiration of its growth in the United States.

We may not have to go back to the farm ourselves but the gait at which we are going will cause our posterity to lead rura' lives. Head us off.

Uncle Sam appears to be generally considered with exceeding high regard but people who have real estate to sell or contracts to make with him impose upon his most extravagant generosity.

TO NOMINATE A CONGRESSMAN.

The interest in the Democratic convention of the Sixth Congressional District to assemble tomorrow at Wrightsville Beach has prevailed with unusual keenness. Probably no other convention ever held in the district had so large an attendance as will tomorrow's assemblage of the Cape Fear Democracy.

The reason for all this is quite well understood. The contentions between the aspirants for the nomination have been strenuous and somewhat heated, and it has been anticipated that the eventualities of the convention consequently will be of an exhiliarating and exciting, if not heated, character. However, let us hope that the convention will be cool and deliberate, that a spirit of harmony will guide the convention's deliberations, and that good judgment shall control its choice of a candidate for Congress.

The results of the convention are more important to the Democracy of the Sixth District than will be incidents that may entertain or excite. The work to be done is of serious import for the people and the party, and that should be remembered by its participants. Calm judgment and not temper, under conditions somewhat volcanic, should characterize the deliberations of the men who are to select a man who is to sit in Congress as the representative of this district, the most important in the State.

Let us pause to consider the great importance of the Congressional district within which is situated the city of Wilmington, now a South Atlantic port so consequential as to have attracted National attention on account of its remarkable commercial achievements. The port was one of the few which the recent report of the Department of Commerce and Labor distinguished for the very remarkable gain in its commerce, amounting annually from $65,000,000 to $75,000,000 in foreign and domestic exports and imports. It is the chief port of a great State, and is to become the greater port of this and other States when the Panama Canal begins to draw on it for maritime business.

By reason of the river and harbor improvements in this district the Congressional appropriations and government expenditures for the port and at Fort Caswell, are many thousands of dollars greater than those throughout the entire State combined, and, therefore, we should more than ever regard as a matter of the extremest importance the character of the man to be sent to Washington to represent the Cape Fear district. He should be the ablest and most representative man in the district, regardless of the political ambitions of any man. Heretofore, we have not appeared to regard our important position as a great Congressional district, but it is time for us to profoundly realize that a seat in Congress for the Sixth District is not a political football to be kicked to goal by anybody who can.

Let the convention tomorrow remember this so that its single aim will be to give the district an able, available and representative nominee for Congress.

"Teddy is to take the stump," says a contemporary. This will be a little diversion for Teddy, for he has been taking the cake for a long time.

The old soldiers are much interested in the contest which Major Charles M. Stedman is making for the Congressional nomination. One of them, a man who is particular how he bestows praise, said yesterday he very much hoped the major would get the nomination. He declared that if any man did his duty in the war it was Major Stedman. The record of Guilford's candidate as a soldier and the cordial support which his comrades in arms are giving him form one of his strongest claims on the favorable consideration of the convention.—Greenville Telegram.

In addition to the Georgia peach specials, the railroads are now operating New Orleans cotton specials. The New York speculators are feeling the July "squeeze" and as they must have cotton to relieve the pain, and that in a hurry, they are raking the South for the staple and having it rushed to them in special trains. This is one of the explanations of the recent rise in cotton, and it is an indication that the market will be pretty well cleaned out by the time the new crop comes on and that is an indication that the farmers need not worry about the price. It is going to be a good one, no matter the size of the crop. Cotton has reached a high rung in the ladder and it is going to roost there for a long time to come.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Congressman Champ Clark writing to the Progressive Farmer on the subject of agricultural development of our country says: "I am very much interested in developing the agricultural resources of the country because, at the present rate, it will not be long before we will cease to be exporters of things to eat. We will not only cease to export, but will be importing, which is gloomier still. Unless things change, in twenty years from now the balance of trade will be against us so far as agricultural products are concerned, except cotton." This is a startling prediction, and it is as true as startling. Something must be done or the country in a short while will be unable to depend upon itself for its food supply. The land is here. The trouble is to get the laborers. The South alone could supply the whole country with food were all its idle acres put to producing.—Charlotte News.

Texas is now in the throes of a State campaign even more exciting than that going on in Georgia and Tennessee, but the issues were not presented clearly to the country until a few days ago when a manifesto issued at Dallas by the friends of Attorney General Davidson, who is a candidate for Governor, showed that the questions involved are not wholly local. It is charged that Mr. Davidson is being bitterly opposed by the allies of the Standard Oil Company, and its subsidiaries, who are trying to accomplish his political destruction for having prosecuted two of the branches of the oil trust and obtaining from the courts a decree imposing on them a fine of $2,000,000 and an order of expulsion from the State. From all accounts the Standard Oil crowd are determined to secure Mr. Davidson's scalp for revenge, and in order to regain its former standing in Texas. It does not appear that any answer has been made to the presentation of his case to the voters, hence the progress of the campaign will be watched with a great deal of interest outside of the State.—New Orleans States.

In its eminently sensible report the grand jury of the recent term of Robeson Superior Court touched upon two vitally important matters—public schools and public roads. Attention was called to some schools in the county that have not kept up with the progress that has marked most schools during the past five years, schools that are even poorer than they were five years ago, and good recommendations were made. And the jury, expressing the belief that "churches, schools and good roads go hand in hand in the development of the county and its people," recommended a bond issue in an amount sufficient to build permanent highways. We hope yet to see a bond issue in Robeson for this purpose. In view of the easily-demonstrable fact that sufficient bonds could be floated to build good roads for the amount that is now almost wasted in patch-work, it would seem that no very strong reasons could be urged for putting off this important matter. Some people honestly urge as an objection the fear that too much graft would creep into the expenditure of the money. There would be no more danger in that respect in this county than in other counties, and since other counties have handled successfully large bond issues for that purpose, of course Robeson could.—Lumberton Robesonian.

FATHER KILLED SAVING SON.

(Special to News and Observer.)

States ville, N. C., July 18.—Robert L. Mills was almost instantly killed late this evening while attempting to stop a runaway team. the distressing accident occurring near the station. He was caught between the wagon and a box car and his head was badly crushed. Death was within a minute after he was extricated from the wrecked wagon. Early in the afternoon, Mr. Mills and his son Ernest Mills, brought a load of wood from home, three miles east of town and while his son returned home for another load of wood, Mills remained here to visit his father, Squire W. C. Mills, and to attend to some business.

Realizing that it was about time for his son to be nearing the depot with another load, the father went to the crossing east of the railway station and there found his son on the wagon waiting for a train to depart. The train was standing still and the father motioned his son to come on across. Young Mills started the horses and they immediately took fright at the train and began running.

Seeing his son's danger, the father rushed to the team and seized the bridle of one of the horses while the son on the wagon pulled on the lines, the father continued to hold on to the bridle of the horse as the team dashed alongside of a string of box cars. In his efforts to stop the team Mr. Mills kept puling them nearer the cars, while he was between the cars and the team. Suddenly the team turned toward the cars and Mills was dashed against a car and thrown beneath the front wheel of the wagon just as the wheel struck the car and was shattered. When the crash came the horses broke loose and young Mills was thrown to the ground, but was only slightly hurt. It was a terrible experience for the son to see his father dashed to death while trying to save him and the news of his death was a great shock to the family of the deceased. Mr. Mills was a farmer 45 years old and leaves a large family.

Thought He Was Chairman.

(Lumberton Robesonian.)

It is said that it came to pass when the Robeson county delegation to the recent State convention reached Charlotte a certain Lumberton politician went at once and registered as chairman of the delegation from this county, no meeting for election of chairman having at that time been held. And by and by it came to pass that the delegates held a meeting to organize and elected Col. N. A. McLean chairman, and the man who had nominated and elected himself chairman and in that capacity had gotten badges for the delegates was asked to turn over aforesaid badges. Selah.

Examination of the formulary departments of leading drug stores throughout the country has proved that a very large percentage of the prescriptions filed for doctors are for proprietary medicines.

COLORED KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

Grand Lodge Sessions Began in This City Yesterday With Large Attendance—Addresses and Responses—Parade.

(Reported for The Star.)

Colored Knights of Pythias from every section of the State, attending the sixth annual grand lodge, assembled yesterday morning at 11:45 o'clock in the auditorium of St. Luke's A. M. E. Zion church, corner Seventh and church streets, at which time a public session was held. The incessant downpour of rain did not dampen the ardor of the members of the fraternity and they filled the main floor of the edifice.

The session opened with J. C. Kelly, Chancellor Commander of Excelsior lodge, of Wilmington, in the chair. In a speech befitting the occasion he introduced Grand Chancellor J. S. Fitts, one of the leading colored lawyers of the South, who afterward presided in an excellent manner over the meeting.

After a selection by the choir, invocation was offered by Rev. B. F. Martin, of Gastonia.

The inclement weather prevented Mayor Walter G. MacRae from being present and making the welcome address on the behalf of the city. F. P. Pitt, member of a local lodge in making the opening address, paid a tribute to Mayor MacRae. He said that such a body of respectable colored people always received the approbation and support of the white citizens of Wilmington. These remarks elicited unstinted applause from the audience. The response to the welcome address on behalf of the city was by Dr. F. B. Capeheart, of Raleigh, a concrete example of the South's best colored element.

Rev. J. A. Bonner, D. D., pastor of the colored Presbyterian church, this city, nearly brought his audience to their feet in delivering the welcome address on behalf of the local lodges, Knights of Pythias.

The response to the welcome address by Dr. G. W. Adams, of Durham, proved him to be a scholar and a thoughtful and safe leader of his people. He is cashier of the colored bank in Durham, which is among the leading financial institutions managed by people of negroid descent. A healthy propaganda for the good of his people, was the salient feature of Dr. Adams' address.

Rev. Geo. L. White, D. D., pastor of St. Luke's A. M. E. Zion church, delivered the welcome address in behalf of the local colored churches.

In responding to the address, Rev. B. F. Martin, D. D., of Gastonia, drew heavily upon the choicest words in the English language and caused many applauses during his address.

The usual activity in evidence at such a meeting was the feature of the sessions held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and at 8 P. M. Report of the credential committee and conferring of Past Chancellor's degrees were the principal events of these sessions.

There are at present over 360 delegates in the city. Negroes well known for their thrift, character and intelligence, attending the grand lodge are: Prof. H. E. Hagans, of Goldsboro; Dr. J. E. Dellinger, Greensboro; Dr. J. W. Jones, Winston-Salem; Prof. J. M. Avery, Durham; Lawyer D. P. Lane, Capt. J. E. Hamlin, and Col. James H. Young, Raleigh; Archdeacon W. Geo. Avant, Newbern.

At today's sessions business will be dispatched in the usual manner and financial reports and election of officers will be noticeable features.

The parade will be at 3 P. M. today. Major James Reeves, a member of the staff, now of Florida, will be one of the commanding officers.

The demonstration will begin about August 1st and will continue for two weeks. The first floor of the building is peculiarly adapted for this purpose. Mrs. Whitted, of Durham, a noted lecturer on culinary art, has been secured to give lectures during the two weeks of the demonstration. She will give instructions as to the use of gas ranges and also about cooking in general. The ladies of the city and section will receive the announcement with pleasure.

OLD A. P. MAN DEAD.

Washington, July 19.—John A. Cross, one of the oldest employes in point of length of service in the Washington bureau of the Associated Press, died at his home here early today. He suffered a stroke of apoplexy yesterday morning just as he was starting upon his vacation and did not recover consciousness. Few Washington newspaper men had so wide an acquaintance as Mr. Gross among public men including foreign diplomats.

REGISTER DIES OF INJURIES

Young Man Passed Away at Hospital as Result of Blow Received in Difficulty Sunday With Walter Way, of This City.

C. L. Register, a young farmer of Warsaw, Duplin county, died at the James Walker Memorial Hospital shortly after 8 o'clock last night as the result of a blow received Sunday afternoon in a difficulty with Walter Way, 45 years old, a well known white man and plumber of this city, who has been in prison without bond since the trouble, which occurred at the foot of Dock street. Register was taken to the hospital in an unconscious condition a short time after receiving the injury and died without regaining consciousness.

Register's father-in-law, Mr. J. J. Ezzell, of Turkey, who was with him when the difficulty occurred, returned to his home Monday afternoon, but came back to the city yesterday. Chief of Police N. J. Williams wired Mrs. Register of the critical condition of her husband and she is expected to arrive this morning. She could not be communincated with last night to inform her of the passing of her husband.

Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner, was notified immediately after the death of young Register and selected the following as the jury to inquire into the facts at a meeting to be held in the grand jury room at the Court House at 11 o'clock this morning: J. R. Kennedy, J. W. Robinson, George Harriss, Julius Sternberger, W. H. Howell, J. W. Gafford. It is probable that an autopsy will be conducted by Dr. W. D. MacMillan, the county superintendent of health. In the meantime the body of the unfortunate young man remains at the hospital.

It is thought that death was caused by a fracture of the skull and the severing of a blood vessel in the head. This, however, will be determined by the autopsy.

An account of the difficulty which terminated fatally for the young man was given exclusively in The Star yesterday, it being the version of Mr. Ezzell, father-in-law of the young man, who was one of the eye witnesses to what took place between Way and Register. The trouble started over a dispute about 25 cents, which it is alleged that Register gave Way with which to purchase some whiskey, which was not forthcoming. Register is said to have demanded a return of his money upon the failure of Way to deliver the whiskey and this led to some heated words between the two. According to Mr. Ezzell, Register was standing up with his arms folded across his breast when he was struck a terrific blow on the left cheek, felling him. The young man's head came in contact with the cobble stones with such force as to produce injuries on the back of the head that it is thought to have caused his death.

Register had a nice little farm on the edge of Warsaw and was meeting with success in his agricultural pursuits. Noting in the papers the reduced Sunday rates offered by the A. C. L., he decided to take advantage of the opportunity to visit Wilmington and the beaches at small cost. He did not care to come alone and pursuaded his father-in-law to come with him, purchasing the elder man's ticket as an inducement to him to make the trip. They expected to return in the afternoon to Warsaw.

Way is a well known character. He has a wife and two children, and lives near Front and Castle streets. It was stated last night that manslaughter is all that could be made out of the case according to Mr. Ezzell's version of the affair. There may be other circumstances that may put the affair in a more favorable light for the accused, no statement having been made by him as yet.

When you suffer with any skin trouble, even though the itching seems unbearable, do not think that it is necessary to use some disgusting greasy ointment. Try Hokara, a pure and simple skin food, that is guaranteed to contain no grease or acids and which is so cleanly that it does not soil the linen.

Its power to instantly relieve any irritation of the skin and make it soft white and beautiful is almost miraculous.

Not only are minor skin troubles, like pimples, blackheads, ache, barber's itch, etc., quickly cured, but the worst ulcers or cases of salt rheum or eczema are cleaned and healed by this wonderful skin food.

In order that any one may try Hokara at small expense, J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. are selling a liberal sized jar at 25 cents, and in addition guarantee to refund the money if the treatment does not do all that is claimed for it. Larger size 50 cents.

If the skin trouble is caused by impure blood or if the bowels are inactive, use Hokara Blood Tablets. They cool and cleanse the blood and regulate the bowels in a natural way

THE HEALTH APPROPRIATION

Concurred in Last Night by Board of Audit and Finance After Discussion of General Conditions—Other Items.

After discussing for more than an hour and a half last night the general health and sanitary conditions of the city, the causes of the present unsatisfactory status in this regard and the remedies sought to be applied, the Board of Audit and Finance concurred in the appropriation of $5,000 by the Aldermen, or so much thereof as is necessary to place the city in a thoroughly sanitary condition, provided that the expenditures take the regular channel of approval by the Board of Audit and Finance, which was not contemplated in the original resolution passed by the co-ordinate board.

There were present before the Board last night Chairman Thos. B. Willard, of the special committee appointed by the Aldermen to supervise the work; Dr. Jos. Akerman, city superintendent of health; Dr. Chas. T. Harper, former superintendent, and Dr. Russell Bellamy, who incidentally dropped in to hear the discussion and favored the Board with his views of the situation. Members of the Board present were Chairman M. J. Heyer, Messrs. Wilder, Tiencken, Cooper and the clerk, Capt. Thos. D. Meares. The clerk read the communication from the Board of Aldermen transmitting the action of the Aldermen with reference to the extra sanitary appropriation and Alderman Willard was asked to be heard upon any phase of the question he desired to present. He desired first to correct an impression that the Aldermen desired to ride rough shod over the Board of Audit and Finance relative to the appropriation as had been suggested in the opinion of the City Attorney. The chairman stated that he did not give great weight to the opinion and stated that a mandamus would lie only to compel the Board to use their best judgment as to the appropriation. He would like to know of Mr. Willard why the unsatisfactory sanitary condition had developed and what has caused it; furthermore what remedies were proposed. Mr. Willard thought the only way to correct the trouble would be to pass an ordinance requiring all surface closets to be placed in sanitary condition and screened; increase the number of inspectors to six; let the city take over the scavenger business and require cows to be banished from the city. All of these reforms could not be inaugurated at once but additional inspectors should be put on and a general cleaning up inaugurated. Mr. Willard said that he had no idea $5,000 would be required or even that $1,000 would be expended but the committee desired this amount immediately available in case of an emergency. The chairman wanted to know if the number of inspectors had not some time ago been reduced from four to three at the request of the health department.

This was explained a moment later by Dr. Akerman who was called upon for his views on the general situation. He stated that the reduction referred to by Mr. Heyer was not a reduction at all; it was merely a transfer of one of the men to the office to act as clerk, the presence of one man being required in the office at all times. Dr. Akerman attributed the present unsatisfactory conditions to a lack of co-ordinate effort in the various branches of the city government. It was hard to ascertain whose business it is to attend to this or that emergency, citing a concrete case of a bad street crossing that neither the health, sanitary or streets and wharves departments would claim responsibility for. Another fruitful source of trouble is the system of private sewers and the difficulty of ascertaining ownership in case of trouble. He was asked by Chairman Heyer what remedy he suggested and Dr. Akerman replied that first he would impress upon the people the importance of boiling their drinking water; a closer attention to their own premises; a more thorough system of inspection and some rearrangement of the scavenger system. He was not prepared to say that it was practicable for the city just now to take over the scavenger system on the principle that it is dangerous "to swap horses in mid-stream" but he had previously recommended the adoption of the Raleigh and Durham system of requiring owners of surface closets to take out license and pay their fees at the beginning of each fiscal year.

Chairman Heyer suggested that the number of inspectors be increased to six and that an appropration be made in order that the city might have done the necessary scavenger work where an emergency had arisen and owners could not be ascertained and required to have the work done.

Dr. Harper was heard from and recommended the use of the screened surface closets, a sample of which was recently placed on exhibition at the City Hall. He told of the difficulties encountered and scouted the idea of the occasion for any alarm.

There next arose a discussion of the proper means of disbursing the $5,000 appropriation, the chairman contending that this should be through the regular organized health department. Mr. Willard explained that the work would be done through the committee entirely under the jurisdiction of Dr. Akerman, but it was only after a discussion of half an hour or more that the motion was finally put in shape for passage and was put through as detailed.

The Board then turned its attention to other matters, few of which, however, came up. Bond of the Tidewater Power Co., in the sum of $5,000, for maintenance of its lighting contract with the city, Mr. C. N. Evans, surety, was approved. The Board also approved the action of the Aldermen in calling for a sale of $100,000 of water and sewerage bonds to be used exclusively for sewerage construction. The usual bills for current expenses were audited and approved.

REPORT OF CAPTAIN BROWN

Lengthy Document Showing in Detail Work of Wilmington District During Fiscal Year Ending June 30th.

The report of Capt. Earl I. Brown, Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, in charge of the Wilmington district, for the year ending June 30th, 1910, has been completed and it shows in detail the work accomplished under his direction during that period. A large number of improvements have been made during the year throughout the district and splendid progress has been made on the Inland Waterways project, as will appear from an extract of the report as prepared by Mr. H. H. Ford, the popular and capable secretary to Capt. Brown.

As a result of the year's work, a mooring basin in Wilmington harbor, 24 feet deep, has been partially completed, and repairs to Swash Defense dam have been completed, while the channels below Reaves Point Shoal, including the ocean bar, which were 22 feet deep at the beginning of the year, and the 22 to 24 feet channels above Reaves Point shoal, have been maintained, besides Wilmington, Brunswick river, Logs and Big Island, Keg Island, Lilliput, Old Brunswick Cove, and Midnight Shoals have been increased to 270 feet width and 24 feet depth and Reaves Point Shoal to 148 feet width and 24 feet depth. A piece of property has been purchased in Wilmington for a repair yard, and a bulkhead for a wharf 300 feet long has been about 70 per cent. completed.

The suction dredges Cape Fear and Comstock, the clam-shell dredges Ajax and Hercules, and the hydraulic dredge Jacksonville have been at work on the ocean bar, river channels and the mooring basin at Wilmington, removing the following amounts of material:

268,626 cubic yards of sand and mud were removed by the dredge Cape Fear at a cost of 7.8 cents, $21,009.56.

1,014,003 cubic yards of sands and mud were removed by the dredge Jacksonville, at 7.7 cents, $78,072.63.

899,504 cubic yards of sand and mud were removed by the dredge Hercules, at 5 cents (includes cost of removing 347 stumps and 192 logs) $44,651.84.

587,411 cubic yards of sand and mud removed by dredge Ajax, at 4.5 cents, (includes cost of removing 231 stumps and 84 logs), $26,757.45.

49,172 cubic yards of sand and mud removed by dredge Gen. C. B. Comstock, at 17.4 cents, $8,573.30.

Repairs to Swash Defense dam, putting in riprap stone, concreting, etc., $34,068.73.

Repairs to New Inlet dam, picking up stone, placing along river toe, etc., $744.12.

Repairs to dredging plant, purchasing property for yard, etc., $20,043.90.

A total of 2,818,716 cubic yards of material, 578 stumps and 276 logs were removed from the river channels, ocean bar and mooring basin. The cost of removing this material, not including repairs to dredges and purchase of property, was $178,882.78, or 6.3 cents per cubic yard, allowing nothing for removal of logs and stumps.

The estimated value of the dredging plant belonging to the Cape Fear river improvement at the close of the fiscal year was $217,976.73.

To Complete Repairs.

With the available balance, it is proposed to complete the repairs to New Inlet dam and extension at Federal Point and Zekes Island ends, maintain present dredged channels, construct a pile training dyke for regulating the currents in the vicinity of Snows Marsh channel, and continue the project in accordance with the provisions of the river and harbor act approved March 2nd, 1907.

Statement of Commerce.

The statement of commerce for the Cape Fear river at and below Wilmington submitted with Capt. Brown's report shows the following totals:

	Tons.	Value
INSERT REPORT
Total exports, foreign and coastwise	280,161	$35,336,395.00
Total exports, international	119,733	4,693,640.00
Total imports, foreign and coastwise	248,483	9,693,869.00
Total imports, international	224,049	2,490,350.00
Total Commerce for calendar year 1909	872,426	$52,214,254.00
Gain over last year	8,355	2,361,079.00

A total of 31 cotton steamers were loaded at this port during the year 1909, their total tonnage being 66,028 and carrying a total of 364,968 bales. Their drafts were from 15 feet, the minimum, to 22 feet, the maximum. The highest number of bales carried by any one steamer was 16,127, that being the cargo of the "Harlyn."

The commerce for the year 1909 on the Northeast river amounted to 126,986 tons, valued at $1,744,005, an increase over the previous year of 25,125 tons, or approximately 25 per cent. Commerce on Black river for the same period was 48,061 tons, valued at $979,609, an increase of 2,063 tons over the previous year. Commerce on the Cape Fear above Wilmington was 168,735 tons, valued at $4,460,376, an increase over the previous year of 31,115 tons. The work on Northeast and Black rivers during the year was principally maintenance. The act of June 1910 appropriated $100,000 for locks and dams to secure a depth of eight feet to Fayetteville and authorized the continuance of contracts in the Wilmington district, for a total cost of $615,000.

The Wilmington sub-district has been in local charge of Mr. Robt. C. Merritt, assistant engineer, and Mr. John D. Spinks, junior engineer, assisting.

Inland Waterways Project.

In the Newbern sub-district, Assistant Engineer Harry T. Patterson, in charge, Overseer Frank D. Perry assisting, work has been carried on on the Inland Waterways project from Pamlico Sound to Beaufort Inlet. Up to date there have been removed 2,905,185 cubic yards from the prescribed cross-section, 547,054 cubic yards from the allowable one foot over depth, completing 86,395.6 linear feet of channel. It is estimated that the waterway is about 80 per cent. completed. The construction of the steel highway bridge over Core Creek, under contract, is about 85 per cent. completed. Other work has been dredging, snagging, etc., for maintenance of Neuse, Trent, Pamlico and Tar and other streams in that locality. The waterway project in that territory is progressing most satisfactorily. It is a link in the chain of the Inter-Coastal Waterways project, which promises so much for the entire South.

NOTES OF CAMP BRUNSWICK

Routine of Life in Tented City—Programme of Athletics and Militray Ball on Tapis—Other News Items of Interest.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Camp Brunswick, Southport, N. C., July 18.—Detail for today: Captain Loughlin, officer of the day; Irving, corporal of the guard; privates, Boney, Bornemann, Davis, Leon, Evans, P. Fishing Squad; Hall, J., Col. Taylor, Rourk, J.Garrison, Dr. Nutt, Reaves, Register, D. By order of

COL. TAYLOR, Commander.

Today was one of the most eventful and pleasant days yet enjoyed in camp as a result of a full programme of a varied nature. The camp was aroused at 6 A. M. and after removing some of the surplus real estate the men went to breakfast and endeavored to stretch themselves to elephantine proportions and were only prevented from meeting with the fullest success by nature and the watchful vigil of Col. Taylor, without whose constant presence daily disasters would be reported. However all the boys are well and happy and there is no reason to believe that this will not continue to the end of camp. After breakfast impromptu games of various kinds were indulged, some playing baseball, others football and others enjoying themselves with the gloves. There were some strenuous bouts among the younger fry and a few of the older men. If you do not believe this ask Hearne Jewell, the handsome one. However they all enjoyed themselves and relieved some pent up vigor which threatened to destroy them hence the general result was good. During the afternoon a game of baseball was played between the teams of Companies A and B and it was a great exhibition of the National sport. The batteries for Company A: Pitchers Price, Irving and Davis, Chas. Catcher Burriss, J.; for Company B, Davis, L. and Burnett, R. The score was 5 to 6 in favor of Comany B. It required eleven innings to decide the contest. Time of game one hour and forty minutes. The features of the game were the playing of Walker Taylor, Jr., who made three hits in four times at the bat and stole second by a pretty slide around the bag. The pitching of Price, who only allowed ten hits, in four innings, three of which were for doubles, and the rooting of Doc. Nutt from the grandstand who became so incensed at the rulings of the umpire that he threatened to go out on the field of play and destroy the officer of the indicator, but as he could secure the co-operation of only about fifteen others he felt it would be unsafe and so believing discretion the better part of valor he very discretly remained in the stand and hurled such vile epithets as "Rotten, thief, robber, etc." at the defenseless umpire and believed himself a hero for the great bravery he manifested. He is going to make application for a Carnegie medal.

After the return from the game, the men went for their daily dip in the river and had a great time. They also incidentally improved their appearance as the local board of health threatened to fumigate them unless they took immediate measures for the protection of the people of this modern city by the sea. Handsome Hearne Jewell thought it indecorous to display his huge limbs to the rude gaze of the damsels of the vicinity by the use of a bathing suit and he went in in full uniform. It might well be told that his admiring friends of the committee on pure morals raised a large purse of thirty cents for him because he had very courageously withstood the popular custom and he is now radiant with smiles in his new possession of wealth. The features of the night were a meeting of the members of the unknown tongue congregation, a Wild West show, an auction sale of lots and a report of a baseball game. The meetings of the Unknown Tongues was led by Pastor C. C. Davis and Deacon McAllister and the music was furnished by the Famous Glee Club of the great and only Judge Bornemann. When this is said all is said. There is nothing left to be told. If the rain stops in time there will be a game of baseball between the single and married men today. We cannot predict what the result will be except some very sore muscles and sorer minds after the result is known. We hope there will be no serious casualties. Wednesday will be a day of athletics when a programme of various events as follows will be pulled off:

1. Standing Broad Jump, prizes one pair tennis shoes and 1-2 dozen cigars.
2. 100-yard dash, one pair of shoes and three pairs socks.
3. Throwing baseball, one hat and 1-2 dozen cigars.
4. 220 yards run, five pound can of preserves and 1-2 dozen cigars.
5. Running broad jump, one shirt and 1-2 dozen cigars.
6. Swimming, 1-4 mile, one fountain pen and three pairs socks.
7. Obstacle race, one dozen cigars and one prize unannounced.
8. Potato race for boys under 15 years of age, two prizes.

The feature for the evening will be a military ball which promises to be a very popular and enjoyable affair. For those who do not dance there will be a lawn party to which all may go and be refreshed by the use of the good things there to be sold by the ladies of the Methodist Church and both affairs will undoubtedly be well patronized.

The moral tone in this camp is very high and helpful to all present. The interest manifested at the morning meetings for religious exercise is very keen. The men listen to every word spoken and enter heartily into the singing and other features. There is a spirit of real happiness here which is good to see. The men are thoroughly enjoying themselves in a clean, wholesome way, their hours are well regulated and they are being well fed hence at the end of this week they will all return to the city better men morally and physically as a result of their short outing. The time spent is not wasted as are so many days spent in some encampments but is a real benefit to all these young men who, after all, see so little real pleasure in life. The brigade management wishes here to express its sense of appreciation to the employers and others who have in any manner contributed to the success of this outing.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Near-Beer Cases Are Continued Until Saturday Morning.

In the Recorder's court yesterday morning the cases against "Son" Roderick, E. M. Roderick and Isaac Mintz, charged with selling near-beer without license, were called, but continued until Saturday. Several persons were required to pay the cost in cases against them for the non-payment of dog tax. The most interesting case heard yesterday morning was against Constanka, a foreign peanut vender, who has been holding forth in front of Mr. I. Shrier's store on Front street. He was charged with obstructing the street. He was represented by Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq., while Herbert McClammy, Esq., city attorney, appeared for the prosecution. Judgment was suspended upon payment of costs and upon the condition that the defendant would move his stand imediately.

PENDER CROPS DAMAGED.

Continuous Rains Make Farming Prospects Gloomy—Flood Also Feared.

According to reports received here Pender county crops and those in adjoining counties throughout that section, have suffered severely as a result of the continuous rains for the past month. Some farmers, however, were fortunate enough to have their crops in such a condition that they are not so badly affected.

Besides the destruction by rains the farmers on the Northeast river in the Canetuck section, fear that the result will be a recurrence of the flood, which proved so disastrous to this section two years ago. Mr. B. F. Keith returned home yesterday from his farm in Pender and stated that the yield will be much smaller than last year as a result of the rainy weather.

AN INTERESTING CURIO.

Copy of Ulster County Gazette Over One Hundred Years Old.

Mr. N. A. Price, of Leland, Brunswick county, has in his possession a rare and valuable curiosity in the form of a copy of the Ulster County (N. Y.) Gazette, of date January 4th, 1800. It was bequeathed to him by his uncle who was at one time a resident of Ulster county, N. Y. The paper was published at Kingston by Samuel Freer & Son and besides other interesting matter of the times, contains an account of the death of George Washington. Mr. Price has had the paper in his possession for more than 20 years but is now considering its sale to some public museum or to some individual with a collection of his or her own. He would be glad to answer correspondence relative to the paper.

MISS MARIE BONEY BRIDE OF MR. ROBERT E. McCRARY.

A pretty and interesting marriage witnessed by a host of admiring friends was solemnized last evening at 6:30 o'clock, when Miss Marie Boney, daughter of Mrs. Mary A. Boney, was given in marriage to Mr. Robert Emmett McCrary at the home of the bride's mother, No. 309 North Front street.

A large party of invited friends were present at the ceremony and the home was unusually attractive and beautiful in its exquisite decoration of greens and cut flowers. It was one of the prettiest home weddings of the season. The color scheme of green and white was carried out with Southern smilax, palms, ferns and a variety of cut flowers.

The guests were received by Misses Chrissie and Sallie Price Boney, relatives of the bride, and the ceremony was performed promptly at the appointed hour. Miss Boney was accompanied to the altar by her uncle, Mr. G. J. Boney, who gave her away, and the groom, Mr. McCrary, entered with the best man, Mr. Sam K. Smith. The maid of honor was Miss Emily Boney, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids, Misses Mamie Whitfield, of this city, Nellie Mitchell, of Parkersburg, and Susie Boney, of Wallace. The bride wore a handsome traveling suit of tan with hat and gloves to match, and carried bride's roses, while the maid-of-honor and the bridesmaids were attired in white batiste and carried lovely bouquets of sweet peas. The groomsmen were Messrs. J. L. Comer, B. C. Boney and A. M. Cross. Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, officiated. The wedding marches were played by Miss Madge Southerland, of Wallace.

The young couple were extended the happiest felicitations of their many friends, following the ceremony, both being well known and popular in the city. They left last evening for the mountains of Western North Carolina, where they will spend their honeymoon, returning here to make their home in about ten days. Mr. McCrary is an expert chemist and has had a position with the Swift Fertilizer Company for a number of years. They received a large number of handsome wedding presents from friends.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. Boney, Jr., of Florence, S. C.; Mr. E. Boney, of Teachey's; Miss Madge Southerland and Misses Susie, Lula and Gertrude, and Mrs. P. Boney, of Wallace, and Miss Nellie Mitchell, of Parkersburg, N. C.

PRESBYTERIAN BOARD MEETS

Opened Three Days' Session to Dispose of Unfinished Business.

Philadelphia, July 19.—The executive committee of the General Assembly of Presbyterian Church of the United States of America opened a three day session here today. The meetings are for the purpose of arranging business for a part of which may not be settled until the meeting of November 15th in Chicago.

Though no definite action was taken today among the subjects under discussion were the budgets of the benevolent and mission boards, which will expend over $3,000,000 during the year, an excess of about $100,000 over last year's expenditures.

Methods of improving the finances of more than 10,000 congregations will be taken up, also the question of representation in relation to reducing the size of the General Assembly and the consolidation of certain board, in particular the Board of Education in this city with the college board in New York and Board of Home Missions for freedmen in Pittsburg.

Copenhagen, July 19.—The German tank steamer Standard, with more than one million gallons of petroleum aboard, caught fire at her mooring today and was totally destroyed. The Standard had recently arrived from Philadelphia and the petroleum was shipped by the Standard Oil Company.

ALDERMAN FAILS TO PRODUCE

Does Not Deny Statements Made About Police and the Commission, But Refuses to Substantiate Charges—Praise for Chief

Although he had stated at several different meetings of the Board of Aldermen and through the press of the city that scores of persons were selling near-beer in Wilmington without license, that the Chief of Police had been given information to this effect by men under him and failed to act, and that the Police and Fire Commission was rotten and evidence sufficient to convict could be gotten, Alderman J. B. Fales, when he appeared before the Police and Fire Commission last night in accordance with a resolution adopted by his board, failed to come forward with the evidence to substantiate a single charge that he made.

He reiterated his charges, given, he said, merely as his opinion, but no amount of quizzing from members of the Commission could shake him in his determination not to divulge any information that he might have that would tend to support the statements he has made with reference to the police and the "unlicensed saloons."

It was a special meeting of the Commission and was called by Chairman Wm. E. Springer for the express purpose of hearing any statement that Alderman Fales desired to make that would show negligence of duty on the part of members of the commission or the police department, the chairman having been officially notified of the resolution passed by the Board of Aldermen last week directing that Alderman Fales bring his charges before the commission. Besides Chairman Springer there were in attendance Messrs. Woolvin, French, Burnett and Capt. John Barry, members of the commission, Chief of Police Williams, Mr. D. J. Fergus, present by special invitation of Alderman Fales, and a Star representative. After calling the meeting to order Chairman Springer stated the object and then had the acting clerk to read an interview with Alderman Fales which appeared in the afternoon paper some days ago as follows:

"Conditions in Wilmington, as I see them and according to expressions of the good people and the police, and one alderman, who expressed it that the Board of Aldermen was the "rottenest board he ever saw" (I wonder why he does not include the police and fire commission, because he can get evidence enough to convict) show that something is "rotten in Denmark." I think every man who has taken out a near-beer license and paid his $300 will say the same thing. I brought the matter up at the last meeting of the Board of Aldermen and it was put up to the chief of police. There are as many dealers without license as there are that have paid their money, and they are rolling in whiskey and selling it until 12 o'clock P. M. and all day Sunday, as many of the police express it. I have seen them myself rolling it in. If it has to go on this way and it is all up to the chief for suppression, I think our "rotten board," as one expressed it, ought to call a meeting and refund each man his $300 and tell him to go his way rejoicing, as I have heard many of them say they are sorry that they have taken out license at all."

Alderman Fales asked in what particular did the commission desire a further statement from him. Chairman Springer answered by stating that, first, relative to charges against the chief, second, the names of the policemen who had told him that whiskey was being rolled in unlicensed places and being sold until 12 P. M. and on Sundays.

Alderman Fales asked if the commission wanted facts and if so it seemed to him that it should summons the police and hear what they had to say, instead of summoning an official of the city to make statements that would incriminate some poor officer who is trying to support a family by his efforts on the force and who might have his job taken away on the strength of his (Mr. Fales') testimony, referring to the reduction to ranks of Officer Burnett without charges being preferred. He said that he had talked to the chief and other members of the force and all agreed that whiskey was being sold here. He reiterated his statement that there was something rotten about the commission and declared that he pitied any man who would not agree with him that whiskey is being sold in Wilmington. He was again asked for the facts and not his opinion. Alderman Fales said that he wanted some one to dispute his statements and then he would produce facts sufficient, and not before. He was assured by members of the commission that they had not assembled to dispute a single charge made by him, but for the purpose of carrying on an investigation with a view of getting at the truth, let it hurt whom it might. He then spoke of the treatment accorded by policemen in the courts by lawyers, characterizing it as disgraceful. After some further discussion, the Alderman stated that if he had a thimble full of sense he laid more stress on the chief and the commission than on the police officers. He was again pressed for proof to sustain his charges against the chief and the commission, as made in the newspapers, and replied by stating that he was not present to make any charges against any one. He made some further statements about his opinion and being pinned for something tangible against the chief he had the following to say: "I think the chief is a gentleman; a conscientious officer and with the right kind of men behind him he would move things, turn the town up side down." He said further that the chief is now between two fires and constantly in fear of losing his job.

Asked again for the facts, Alderman Fales said that he thought he had made it clear that he was not going to incriminate a policeman, as Alderman West, who moved the adoption of the resolution to get him before the commission, would have him do.

He then drifted away from the issue and began quizzing members of the commission as to whether they assumed responsibility for the enforcement of the law since Mayor MacRae had "washed his hands of the police," and several members replied that the commission was not a law enforcing body; in other words had nothing to do with the enforcement of the law.

Commissioner French asked Mr. Fales not to bring in so many different things; the meeting was for a specific purpose; to stand up like a man and give the facts instead of beating around the bush, to which Mr. Fales replied that they would not be convicting facts if he gave them. Commissioner French said he should be man enough to stand up and substantiate them. Alderman Fales stated in reply he would give out nothing until he could investigate further as to why the meeting was being held. He asked members of the commission a large number of questions and wanted them answered so he could decide whether or not he would produce. He then started out with his statement. There were many men on the force, he said, that he did not know. Prominent Fifth Ward men had come to him and called his attention to the sale of near-beer by unlicensed places, and some policemen had told him the same thing. At this point he declared that the thing he was most concerned in was why Charlie Burnett was reduced to ranks, no charges having been made against him. He said his entire ward was concerned in this matter and if the action of the commission in this respect was not rotten he did not know what was. Chairman Springer explained that the commission, like the Board of Aldermen when the police were under the control of that body, would reorganize once a year and that the commission made any changes it saw fit.

Commissioner French told Mr. Fales that when he came out in the public print with statements reflecting upon men he should be able to substantiate his charges. Alderman Fales then referred to the fact that three men were arrested Monday night on the charge of conducting near-beer places without license, which, he said, was the result of his statements. Chairman Springer then asked Chief Williams to make a statement relative to this phase of the controversy. Chief Williams stated that as soon as the Aldermen settled on something definite as to near-beer establishments he had a talk with Chairman Springer and they agreed that with the increase of the tax and the opening up of numerous restaurants that they would probably be places handling near-beer that had not paid the tax and that it would be necessary to secure a man outside of the police department to work up such cases. He was put to work ten days ago, said the chief, and a week ago had the three cases. Since the articles of Mr. Fales appeared the special officer was unable to buy any more near-beer, said the chief, and declared that had not the article been published at the time at least ten cases would have been worked up. Alderman Fales said that he sent the man to the chief. Chief Williams stated in reply that if he did send him the man in question he sent a good one, but that he ruined the chances of getting more of the alleged guilty persons by rushing into print.

Chief Williams asked for and was granted the privilege of asking Mr. Fales a question. He desired to know the name of the officers who had stated that he (Williams) had been told of the existence of the unlicensed places but had refused to take action. The question was pressed by Commissioners Woolvin and French. Alderman Fales declared that he would not incriminate a good policeman. Mr. Woolvin did not think a policeman was a good officer who knew of such places and didn't take action.

"I consider Charlie Burnett a good officer," said Mr. Fales. He was asked if Officer Burnett had made the statements referred to in the newspapers. At first Alderman Fales declined to answer, but Commissioner Burnett, a brother to Officer Burnett, insisted upon an answer. Then Alderman Fales replied "No" in a loud voice.

Further questioning failed to elicit anything tending to confirm the charges of Alderman Fales and Chairman Springer said that the commission would excuse Alderman Fales as he was not inclined to tell anything and that there was no way of compelling him to give out the information sought.

Alderman Fales talked longer, however, and in course of his remarks said that if the Legislature knew of the purpose and manner of such an investigation it would turn out every man on the commission. The meeting adjourned at 9:30 o'clock, after all efforts to induce Alderman Fales to produce evidence to substantiate his charges had failed utterly.

Commissioner French had said something during the meeting about Alderman Fales denying or taking back his charges, and at the close of the meeting Alderman Fales told Commissioner French that it depended altogether upon the account of the meeting in The Star this morning as to whether he (Mr. Fales) would wait on Mr. French. The latter replied that he could be found at any time. Just how Commissioner French became connected with The Star's account of the meeting is a mystery and could not be explained by Mr. Fales, who was seen after the meeting and questioned.

A little girl was in the habit of telling "stretchers." Her auntie told her she could never believe her and, to warn her, related the tale of the boy who called "Wolf, wolf!" and how the wolf really did come one day and ate up all the sheep.

"Ate the sheep?" asked the child.

"Yes."

"All of them?"

"Yes; all of them," answered auntie.

"Well," said the little one, "I don't believe you, and you don't believe me. So there!"—Harper's.

AMERICAN DOCTOR NOT HELD.

Dr. Lawrence Burgheim Quit Service of Madriz Unmolested.

Washington, July 19.—Reports that Dr. Lawrence Burgheim, an American physician in Nicaragua, was being forcibly detained with the Madriz troops are denied in a report of an investigation into his case, received by the State Department today. Dr. Burgheim was physician to General Irias, the Madriz commissioner in Eastern Nicaragua, but served of his own will. He recently quit the Madriz service unmolested, the report says, and is now in charge of one of Estrada's hospitals in Bluefields.

The gunboat Yorktown started from Portland, Ore., for Corinto, via San Francisco to relieve the gunboat Vicksburg.

It is denied both at the Navy Department and at the State Department that the dispatch of the Yorktown is of any special significance, her presence there being meant merely as a continued insurance of protection to American interests in Nicaragua.

THE BROWN TRAGEDY.

Burial of the Son—Wounded Step-Mother Will Probably Die.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Oxford, N. C., July 19.—The remains of Otis Brown was laid to rest in Elmwood cemetery this afternoon in the family plot beside that of his father and brother, who died a few years ago, followed by a large procession of sorrowing relatives and friends. The funeral was conducted from the house of Mr. Jno. W. Brown, on Broad street, conducted by Rev. F. M. Shamburger, pastor of the Methodist church, of this city.

At 7 o'clock tonight a last report received from Mrs. J. S. Brown was that pneumonia had set in and there was little hope entertained for her recovery by the attending physicians. Mrs. Brown has been a good Christian woman and a member of the Baptist church and is receiving all the attention that mortal hands and physicians can render. At this hour she is no better and is gradually losing ground.

New York, July 19.—More than 200 Catholic pilgrims sailed from New York today on two steamers which left port at the same hour and will endeavor to keep within hailing distance of each other all the way to Naples, their destinations. The steamers were the Europe of LeVeloce Line and the Cunarder Pannonia. The pilgrims on board are under the spiritual direction of the Rt. Rev. A. VanDeVyver, bishop of Richmond, Va., and they intend to visit the Vatican and see the Pope early in August and later go to Oberammerga and witness the Passion play.

A RAPID DECLINE IN COTTON

Market Sensationally Active and July Showed Net Loss of 81 Points With August 59 Points.—New Crop Months.

New York, July 19.—The cotton market was sensationally active and excited again today, and prices declined even more rapidly than they have recently advanced under heavy general liquidation, and aggressive selling for short account. At the low point of the day July showed a net loss of 81 points and August of 59 points, but the close was a little up from the lowest, although the final tone was barely steady at a net decline of from 14 to 48 points.

The market opened steady at a decline of 6 to 14 points under realizing and local bear pressure inspired by an idea that the July short interest had either covered by purchases of contracts or through shipments of cotton from the South or Liverpool and that the bull leaders would not oppose a good reaction following the recent excited advance. Early sellers found big overnight buying orders around the ring, however, and shortly after the call prices rallied to within three or four points of yesterday's closing figures, but weather reports were a little more sensational owing to the showers in Texas and the prospects for clearing conditions in the Eastern belt as soon as the demand from outside sources began to slacken, local sellers became more aggressive. There seemed to be a little July for sale and the price worked steadily off to 15.90 and from that level broke to 15.65 without any transactions. August sold off to 15.10, and while there was a renewal of bull support at these figures moderate rallies encountered renewed realizing while local bears continued to sell new crop months until they showed a net loss of about 25 to 27 points. The close was about 5 to 6 points up from the lowest on the later deliveries on covering, but the market was very unsettled in the late trading. The weekly weather report made a favorable showing, but rumors that the bull deal was over were emphatically denied by one of the Southern leaders.

Southern spot markets were 1-8c lower to 1-8c higher. Receipts of cotton at the ports today 13,963 bales against 3,282 last week and 2,479 last year; for the week 40,000 bales against 37,541 last week and 18,571 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 2,674 bales against 1,342 last year and at Houston 51 bales against 467 last year.

The cotton spot market closed quiet 50 points lower; middling uplands 15.95; middling gulf 16.20; sales 3,100 bales.

Futures opened steady and closed barely steady.

HUBBARD BROS.' REVIEW.

Poor Cables Weakened Cotton Market. Texas Crop Reports.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, July 19.—Poor cables weakened the market at the outset and the withdrawal of support attributed to the large amount of cotton headed here for delivery found prices vulnerable to realizing sales. The decline was rapid specially in old crop month, August at one time showing a recession of 19 points from which there was a rally. Texas rains stimulated the heavy selling, these are not extensive but sufficient to sell upon. The high temperature in that State was disregarded. The weekly weather reports were without strong features and the bureau lacked bullishness. Profit taking was general and on the lack of any outside demand was on a sharply declining market. The trade is mixed in opinion but the weight of cotton to be tendered is the overpowering influence at the moment.

DEALINGS IN STOCKS TRIVIAL

Listless Attention Paid to Any News on Market by Operators—Effect of the Strike on the Grand Trunk Line.

New York, July 19.—Only listless attention was paid to any news by operators in stocks today and no inducement was found for taking steps in the market that made a perceptible effect on prices. The amounts of the dealings were trivial and the narrow vibration of prices and the inconstancy of the tendencies witnessed the state of hesitation or indifference. The market was allowed to lie fallow for the recuperation of new forces and the professional element were unable to attract any following in their tentative transactions. An early decline was followed by a recovery leaving fractional gains.

Canadian Pacific was rather acutely affected by the sympathetic influence of the strike on the Grand Trunk. Its influence was enhanced by the uneasy feeling existing in England over the dispute over wages on some of its railroad systems while the French railroads are in the throes of a like contention.

Influences from the side of crop advices were mixed. Movements in the cotton market are accepted as passing phases of a speculative campaign rather than accurately reflective of the state of supply and its promise. The effect of the high price level on the textile and on the export demand for cotton are more regarded for their influence on financial and industrial conditions.

Various factors are combining to bid up the strength of the banking position, but the effect on sentiment in the stock market is modified by a disposition to look askance at the revived movement for the formation of currency associations such as are provided for in the law for issuance of emergency currency. The protestations from Treasury authorities and from such bankers as favor the movement that the time is fitting owing to the absence of any present emergency do not prevent assumptions that preparation is desired for a possible resort to the emergency issues this Fall. The United States Treasury is turning back into the money market a large proportion of the sum collected for the corporations income tax. Heavy government disbursements have established a gain for the New York banks on the operations with the sub-treasurysince the last bank statement of $5,680,000. Currency receipts from the interior and incoming gold shipments are to be reckoned with addition. The time money market is weakening under this showing and the removal of finance bills from the exchange market allowed a recovery although the discount rate in London and in Berlin continued to decline.

Bonds were steady. Total sales par value $955,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks for the day, 225,100 shares.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, July 19.—Appetite for wheat, apparently unending of late was satiated today. General rain and cool weather in the Dakotas with cooler weather elsewhere northwest, made holders of high priced grain repent and transforming buyers into sellers. Crop return from the Winter wheat crop were increasingly favorable and more than ouset bullish news from Europe. Closing prices were at a net decline of 1 7-8 to 2 1-4. Other leading staples all showed a loss—corn 1-8 to 3-8c to 1-2, oats 1-2 to 1-2 and provisions 7 1-2 to 25 cents.

ON PENNSYLVANIA LINE.

Everything Going Along Smoothly and President Lee Leaves.

Philadelphia, July 19.—The arranging of the details of the new working conditions granted yesterday by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to its trainmen and conductors proceeded so smoothly at the conferences today between the committee of the men and the various superintendents of the company that W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Firemen, who had remained in this city to supervise the carrying out of the agreement decided that his presence here was no longer required and left tonight for the headquarters of his organization in Cleveland.

"There are a multitude of details to be arranged for," he said, "but everything went so smoothly at the two conferences held today that I do not anticipate any hitch in completing the arrangements. It will require a week or ten days for the committees to complete the various schedules."

JACK JOHNSON ARRESTED.

ARRESTED IN DETROIT.

Doctor and Fake "Sister" Swindled New York Woman.

Detroit, Mich., July 19.—Charged with swindling a Brooklyn woman out of $13,500 and several valuable bonds after marrying her, Dr. Henry B. Keeler, said to have once been a prominent Gotham dentist, was arrested in Detroit today. In company with him, a woman is held at police headquarters, who, it is alleged, posed as his sister and assisted him in getting the $13,500.

According to the police the authorities of America and Europe have been searching the world for the pair and the detectives say that the doctor has been searching the world over in pursuit of health. He came here for treatment. The "sister" was recognized by detectives and when they heard her telephone the doctor to leave the hospital, meet her and take a train for Chicago because they were being watched, the arrests followed.

New York officers are after them now. It was two years ago at Ocean Grove that the doctor is alleged to have met Mrs. Wilhelmina Lynch, whose money he is said to have taken.

The police state that Mrs. Lynch charges Keeler with a unique scheme by which he obtained the money. She said that during her courtship with him, the doctor now and then told of a fortune he possessed in Mexican land properties.

One day after their marriage, so Mrs. Lynch is said to have told the police, Keeler mentioned to his bride that he was in trouble with the Federal authorities over his Mexican properties. He is alleged to have told her that it would take considerable money to straighten the matter up and Mrs. Lynch says that she went to a Manhattan bank with the doctor and his "sister" that he might get $13,500 of her savings.

They went in an automobile she told the officers, and the doctor and the "sister" went in the bank after the money. She waited outside and finally becoming anxious investigated to find, according to her story, that the doctor and "sister" went out another door.

ENGLAND WANTS CRIPPEN.

Asks United States for Arrest and Detention of the Murderer.

Washington, July 19.—The British government has asked the United States for the arrest and detention of Dr. H. H. Crippen, who is wanted in London in connection with the murder of his wife, should he be found in America.

The difficulties which have attended the extradition of Porter Charlton wanted in Italy on a charge of having murdered his wife at Lake Como will not arise should Dr. Crippen be arrested in the United States. Great Britain and the United States adhere to the policy of surrendering their own citizens, who are accused of crime in the other country and it is understood that this policy would be adhered to in the case of Dr. Crippen if all the other requirements for extradition should be met.

Paris, July 19.—A guard on the afternoon boat train running between Dieppe and Paris declares that on July 18th he took tockets from a couple resembling the descriptions of Dr. Crippen and the Leneve woman. The man, the guard says, spoke with an American accent. He did not see in which direction they went on their arrival in Paris, as he was at the other end of the train.

The guard was shown the last photographs of Crippen and Ethel Leneve by a Scotland Yard detective and he unhesitatingly identified them as the persons he had seen.

The French police are not hopeful of this clue and believe that if the couple were the suspects they merely passed through the city, as all the hotels have been scoured in vain for traces of them.

TEDDY TO VISIT BRISTOL.

Secured by Congressman Slemp to Make a Speech.

Bristol, Tenn., July 19.—Representative Bascom Slemp, of the Ninth Virginia District, who has been in New York to see Col. Roosevelt today, wired that he had secured Roosevelt for a speech in Bristol on October 7th, in connection with his Southern tour. It is expected that he will discuss politics here and urge the re-election of Slemp, who will be re-nominated for Congress tomorrow.

LEAVES MOTORMAN FORTUNE

Once Stranded Miner Remembers Old Georgia Friend.

Macon, Ga., July 19.—Shortly before the Klondyke gold boom, W. V. Miller, a motorman of this city, then living in Atlanta and known as "Kid" Miller, met J. F. Curley, a miner, stranded and without funds. He took him in, fed him and gave him money with which to travel as far as Birmingham. That was the last he ever heard of the bread cast upon the waters until yesterday when he received word that Curley had died in Dawson City and left him a fortune estimated at $500,000.

unwarranted abuse upon them and strike down their hands when we should uphold them, the injury, of course, is not entirely personal to them, but in a large measure falls upon the institutions whose agents they are. It is impossible to discredit and destroy the servants of the State who are worthy without impairing the State itself.

"Socialism has been making some headway in recent years. Its progress, no doubt, is due in a considerable degree to a too general impeachment of the good faith and patriotism of those upon whose shoulders, by our choice, rest for the time being the delicate and difficult responsibilities of government.

"We have many questions before us in the world of politics and in the field of business. There are some people who are not free from concern as to their solution; but it seems to me that there need be no fear that, no matter how numerous or complex they are, they will be settled in our common interest, if we shall bring to their consideration sober-minded and patriotic judgment."

Encuorages Advertising.

Speaking of advertising, Mr. Fairbanks said: "Does advertising pay? has been the theme of numerous and labored utterances and there are, no doubt, remote and obscure corners of the country where it is still a vital, living question, but as a rule, it has become academic, and many of the successes we witness in the market place have been achieved by the fullest recognition in practice of the affirmative of the proposition. The best advertiser and the best merchant are sunonymous, and the poorest advertiser is usually the one who finds himself in a court of bankruptcy. O course, all advertisers do not succeed, but i think it will be generally admitted that there are fewer failures among them than among those who do not possess the faculty of bringing their business fairly and favorably before the public."

Mr. Fairbanks also condemned extravagance in public and private affairs.

BRISTOW TO CANNON.

Kansas Senator Makes Sharp Reply to the Speaker.

Topeka, Kas., July 19.—Senator Joseph Bristow, the insurgent, in a speech made here this afternoon pronounced Speaker Cannon a poor judge of rubber. Speaker Cannon at Burlingame yesterday, replying to a former speech of Senator Bristow said the Senator had either "wilfully, knowingly or ignorantly" misrepresented the facts when he said that the increased duty on manufactured rubber had resulted in a lamentable decrease in the importation of that commodity.

The Senator, Mr. Cannon said, liked to brand everybody who disagreed with him as dishonest and that these remarks on rubber gave him a chance to accuse Mr. Aldrich of being a member of the rubber trust.

"Mr. Cannon," said Mr. Bristow this afternoon, "forgets that there is rubber and rubber. When he says that the increased duties on manufactured rubber did not result in a decrease in importation, he would seem to refer only to hard rubber, the kind that is sometimes used in making rules. Let the Speaker look up the rubber question and he will find that there are several kinds of elastic or soft rubber to which my statements apply exactly.

"I am told that Speaker Cannon said that he did not know that Senator Aldrich organized a trust. In my Winfield address I set forth facts as contained in official documents, in Poors Manuel and in the Wall Street Journal, which are considered reliable authority by every business man in this country. Whether or not Senator Aldrich is guilty of a technical violation of the statutes, I do not know. It is the duty of the Attorney General of the United States to investigate violations of he Sherman ani-trust law. But I do know that he is guilty of violation of political decency, of political dishonesty.

"It would have been better taste for Speaker Cannon to demand that his committee of representatives stand by the House tariff schedule than to ask them to stand for the Aldrich schedule. And then, that Cannon should come to Kansas to defend the tariff bill and the men who dictated its passage."

COLOMBIA DISTURBANCES.

American Company Resumes Street Car Service—Rioting Fallows.

Bogota, Colombia, July 19.—The American company resumed the operation of its street car service today and rioting followed. American lives do not appear to be in peril. When the trouble began Maxwell Blake, the American consul general, went to the scene and mingled in the mob. He was received respectfully. it is not believed that the demonstrators will do great damage to American owned property.

Popular feeling is strongly against the operation of the line which is being strictly boycotted. The concession granted by the government to the Bogota City Railroad Company, which was financed by capital from the United States, was unpopular from the first. The concession was received during the presidency of General Reyes.

On March 7th a mob attacked the cars of the company and forced the suspension of traffic. The American legation was stoned at the time.

An attempt to renew the service on March 16th resulted in another outbreak and a strike of the employes, who feared for their lives. President Gonzales Valencia made an official expression of regret to Mr. Northcott, the American minister. The attempt to open the line today was based upon the hope that the ill feeling had disappeared.

NEGRO GETS FEDERAL JOB.

Appointed Collector of Customs at Washington, D. C.

Washington, July 19.—Whitefield McKinley, a negro real estate agent of this city, has been appointed collector of customs here, the technical designation of the office being the port of Georgetown, D. C.

News of McKinley's selection by President Taft was received here today from Secretary Norton at Beverly. It is stated that the appointment signifies the recognition of negroes in important Federal positions.

mont lines from the Hotel Hanover, in this city.

Mr. Lee is here in connection with the conferences between the management of the Pennsylvaia railroad and its men in reference to a settlement of the grievances on the lines east of Pittsburg.

He said this afternoon that he had received numerous messages during the morning from Montreal asking for advice.

"The telegrams," said Mr. Lee, "came from Mr. Murdock, vice president of the Trainmen's organization and one of them requested money. It wired the First National Bank, of Cleveland, to send Montreal immediately $5,000 for the local expenses of the men there. I may be called on at any minute to furnish $100,000 from our treasury. From the latest dispatch I have received I estimate that 5,000 men are on strike on the two systems. It looks like a pretty big affair and a long drawn battle between the company and the men.

"The men on the Grand Trunk and the Central Vermont had taken a vote to strike just as did the employes of the Pennsylvania Railway system on the lines east and west of Pittsburg. Thier demands were practically the same as ours. They desired a standardization of the rates recently granted to the New York Central and other eastern railroad employes. They contended principally for the ten hour day and then establishment of a mileage in place of a trip system."

Windsor Division.

Detroit, Mich., July 19.—The calling out of the trainmen and conductors on the Windsor-Niagara Falls division of the Wabash system has resulted in a complete tie-up of freight traffic on the Windsor end of the line. Passenger trains are being moved with some delay. Division Superintendent J. J. Sim said tonight only the Canadian trainmen are affected and that the employes of the Wabash system west of the Detroit river were in no way concerned in the dispute.

Not a Freight Stirred.

Boston, Mass., July 19.—Not a freight train has stirred over any of the Grand Trunk or Central Vermont lines in New England today. The railroad devoted its efforts to maintaining their passenger schedules. This was successfully done to a large extent, though in some instances trains have been reported as running considerably behind time. I a few cases early this morning trains were abandoned.

The stalling of the freight trains has not caused any serious inconvenience as yet but a continuance of present conditios for a few days will give mill owers and manufacturers who depend upon the system for hauling their coal and other supplies, considerable worry.

All the scheduled passenger trains on the Grand Trunk moved in and out of Portland, Me., today although the arrivals were from one to two hours late.

Strikers Made Demonstration.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., July 19.—Sympathizers with the Grand Trunk strikers made a demonstration in front of the Tenth Street union station at 10 o'clock tonight. Two men were assaulted. The men injured are Depot Master Smith, who was beaten, and a conductor, Lewall, who was struck in the face and knocked down.

Freight Traffic Tied Up.

Toronto, July 19.—A complete tie-up of freight traffic, a partial abandonment of local passenger service, but a maintenance of all passenger trains on the main lines, were the results of the first day's strike on the Grand Trunk of conductors, trainmen and yard men. The union men responded to the strike call practically to a man, the trains that were moved being manned by officials of the road and strike-breakers that have been held in reserve for several days.

The company at present is confining its efforts entirely to the moving of passenger trains, although local officials express confidence that within a few days freight traffic will be resumed.

Every precaution is being taken to prevent rioting and a force of special constable was sworn in today.

The strike up to this time has been conducted in a most orderly way, however, no point in the province reporting any attempt at interference with the efforts of the company to move its trains.

STAKEHOLDER NOT LIABLE.

So Held on Jeffries-Johnson Wager in New York State.

New York, July 19.—If you deposit money with a stakeholder and if he chooses not to give you the winnings, you have no redress under the laws of the State of New York. This was a magistrate's decision today in discharging R. R. Saltz, former manager of the hotel at Albany, whom a group of negro sporting men, including Barron Wilkins, Jack Johnson's friend, had arrested in Buffalo, charged with grand larceny. The negroes raised a pool of $980, it was alleged and placed it with Saltz to be wagered on Johnson at 7 to 10. When the fight was over they claimed they had trouble getting the money and Saltz was arrested.

Counsel for Saltz contended as betting was illegal the winners had no legal title to the money and that consequently no crime had been committed. The court shared this view.

As soon as the defendant was discharged, however, he was immediately re-arrested for violation of the section of the penal code which provides that acting as a stakeholder is a misdemeanor. No complaint was made against the men who had put up the wagers.

WAGE INCREASE ON L. & N.

Four Thousand Employes Given Six Per Cent. Raise.

Louisville, Ky., July 19.—Four thousand Louisville shop employes of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad were given a surprise today when they opened their pay envelopes and found therein an unsolicited increase of 6 per cent. Reports have been current for some days that the raise would be given shop employes throughout the Lousiville & Nashville system, but officials of the road refused to confirm or deny this.

IS BEER SPIRITOUS LIQUOR?

Washington, July 19.—Is beer a spiritous liquor? Upon the determination of that question will depend whether or not the beverage can be introduced into Morehead, Minn., which is situated on ceded Indian lands and is said to be the shipping point of brewers for their trade in North Dakota, a "dry" State.

The Minnesato State Brewers' Association has telegraphed a protest to the bureau of Indian affairs against its recent action in extending prohibition to Morehead in so far as the order applies to the importation of beer. The brewers claim that beer is not a spiritous liquor and consequently does not come within the prohibition contained in the treaties under which the lands were ceded.

Supervisor Holcombe of the Indian bureau, has informed the complaintants that he cannot suspend the instructions as they desired and that they will have until September 15th to remove such beer as then may be in Moorehead. It now develops upon the brewers to convince the Indian bureau that beer is not a spiritous liquor.

A few days ago the bureau of Indian affairs promulgated instructions to its field agents considerably extending the prohibition territory adjacent to the White Earth and Leech Lake reservations in Minnesota in accordance with treaty regulations and for the protection of the Indians from intoxication.

ORDER OF HIBERNIANS.

Forty-Seventh Biennial Convention at Portland, Ore.

Portland, Ore., July 19.—The 47th biennial convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians was called to order today but adjourned within a few minutes until tomorrow. The only business transacted was the appointment of a credentials committee. Three important subjects are scheduled to come before the body for action. First is a proposition to unify the four great Irish societies—the United Irish League, the Seinn Feinn, and the Ancient Order of Hibernians.

The second proposition is the inauguration of a movement which seeks to induce the Irish to leave the large cities of the East and take agricultural pursuit.

The third will be an effort to organize a National Hibernian insurance society and to include a provision making it compulsory for all members of the order to take out insurance.

The Massachusetts delegation today adopted a resolution favoring the re election of Mathew Cummins as president.

New York, July 19.—The first National convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Board of Erin, met here today with 230 delegates in attendance from every State in the Union and Canada. The following cable message was sent to Ireland:

"We send greetings to the National officers of the board in Ireland and also promise moral and financial support to Redmond and his colleagues of the parliamentary party in their gallant fight for home rule."

BRYAN LOOKS FOR VICTORY.

Says Cannon is Biggest Gun the Democratic Party Has.

Louisville, Ky., July 19.—W. J. Bryan, who arrived in Louisville today from Chicago and apparently in excellent health and humor, perpetrated a pun on Speaker Cannon shortly after he arrived at his hotel.

"Speaker Cannon is now the biggest gun the Democratic party has," said Mr. Bryan smilingly, "although the tariff is furnishing the musketry fire."

Mr. Bryan does not believe that Mr. Cannon will be re-elected Speaker. The Nebraskan was of the opinion that new Democrats and the insurgent Republicans in the next House will be able to pass a good tariff bill.

Mr. Bryan and Col. Henry Watterson held a long conference during the morning.

NEGRO SHOT BY SOLDIER

Officers at Fort Meyer Are Helping Washington Police.

Washington, July 19.—The authorities at Fort Meyer, near this city, are helping the Washington police in an effor to apprehend a soldier, presumably of the post, who last night shot a negro on the bridge leading from Georgetown to the fort. The negro William D. Smith, is in a hospital in a dying condition.

Apparently the attack upon the negro was unprovoked. The soldier who was unknown to the negro's two companions, first struck his victim with his fist and then fired upon him as he lay prostrate. Then the soldier fled.

The shooting is ascribed to strong racial feeling that has developed among some of the soldiers at the fort.

BAN JOHNSON SUED.

Baseball Magnate Says He is Not Concerned Over Lawsuit.

New York, July 19.—It became known here today that President Ban Johnson, of the American League, has been sued for libel by John M. Ward, who was a candidate for the presidency of the National League last Winter. The papers were served on Johnson at the up-town hotel where he is staying, yesterday.

Ward seeks damages for certain remarks credited to Johnson last Winter, when the American League leader was backing Heydled and when he was quoted as declaring he would not serve on the national commission with Ward. The amount sued for is said to be $30,000.

Johnson declares that he is not greatly worried by the suit. "I guess I'm not responsible for all the things you see credited to me in the papers," was his comment.
